QUESTION 1

- 1.1 Customary law is a source of law equivalent to the common law. (1)
True
- 1.2 In Executive Council of the Western Cape Legislature v President of the Republic of South Africa 1995 (4) SA 877 (CC) it was held that Parliament can delegate its power to make, amend and repeal Acts of Parliament to the executive because it is universally accepted in modern societies that Parliament cannot attend to every single task that it is enjoined to perform. (1)
False
- 1.3 International law is a persuasive source of law which is not binding but may influence decisions. (1)

- 1.5 The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, is an example of an inflexible constitution. (1)
True
- 1.6 Sujit Choudhry, a constitutional law expert, describes South Africa as a one-party dominant democracy. Choudhry states that "one of the pathologies of a dominant party democracy is the "capturing" of independent institutions meant to check the exercise of political power by the dominant party, enmeshing them in webs of patronage." An unfortunate consequence of this is that there is virtually no separation of state and party in the present South African context. It is illustrated by the fact that Parliament was not prepared to deal decisively with the issue of non-security upgrades to President Zuma's private residence in Nkandla. (1)
True

to recognize admit or celebrate This raises various questions Is a similar process of spontaneous inter ethnic interaction possible between larger ethnic groups today How can we foster such acculturation and can it by itself contribute to ethnic harmony The author also discovers that despite their long settlement and deep acculturation segments of these groups are anxious about their future and pine for an indigenous identity What are the implications of this trend for ethnic relations and how can it be resolved This book traces the acculturation journey of these communities and draws lessons for ethnic relations in one of the most complex multi ethnic nations in the world It will appeal to scholars students laymen and visitors interested in migration history culture ethnicity and heritage in Malaysia and the region
