A Heart in Pieces M.E. Masterson,2018-08-09 As a young girl I always dreamed of a fairy tale life One day my prince would ride up on a white horse and carry me off to his castle with a white picket fence But reality was quite the opposite From the time I was a small child physical emotional and sexual abuse were running rampant in my life I was raised in a strict religious and family environment Many people manipulated me for their own gain I was a pawn of an arranged marriage that produced two beautiful children of which I was determined to raise in love Offering them a life I was unable to enjoy A bitter divorce brought about a whole new life that I had never experienced Rejected homeless with no family I had to find my way in a world from which I had been protected Struggling to figure out this new way of life brought its challenges and many mistakes But nothing prepared me for the heartache of all heartaches that I was to experience at the tender age of twenty six Be prepared to cry shake your head and rejoice while reading my book God helped me write this to bring hope to
