Pilbeam Chapter Palgrave:

The Palgrave Handbook of Small Arms and Conflicts in Africa Usman A. Tar, Charles P. Onwurah, 2021-04-05 This handbook provides critical analyses of the theory and practices of small arms proliferation and its impact on conflicts and organized violence in Africa. It examines the terrains, institutions, factors and actors that drive armed conflict and arms proliferation and further explores the nature, scope and dynamics of conflicts across the continent as well as the extent to which these conflicts are exacerbated by the proliferation of small arms. The volume features rich analyses by contributors who are acquainted with and widely experienced in the formal and informal structures of arms proliferation and control and their repercussions on violence, instability and insecurity across Africa. The chapters dissect the challenges of small arms and light weapons in Africa with a view to understanding roots, causes and drivers and generating a fresh body of analyses that adds value to the existing conversation on conflict management and peacebuilding in Africa. With contributions from scholars, development practitioners, defence and security professionals and civil society activists, the handbook seeks to serve as a reference for students, researchers and policy makers on small arms proliferation, control and regulation, defence and security practitioners and those involved in countering violence and managing conflicts in Africa.

Financial Services in the Twenty-First Century John JA Burke, 2021-07-05 This textbook covers financial systems and services, particularly focusing on present systems and future developments. Broken into three parts: Part One establishes the public institutional framework in which financial services are conducted; defines financial service systems; critically examines the link between finance, wealth and income inequality and economic growth; challenges conventional paradigms about the raison d'être of financial institutions and markets; and considers the loss of US financial hegemony to emerging regional entities BRICS. Part Two focuses on financial innovation by explaining the impact of the following technologies: cryptography, FinTech, distributed ledger technology and artificial intelligence. Part Three assesses to what extent financial innovation has disrupted legacy banking and the delivery of financial services; identifies the main obstacles to reconstructing the whole financial system based upon first principles; thinking Nation State regulation and incumbent interests of multi-national companies; and provides a cursory description of how the pandemic of COVID 19 may establish a new normal for the financial services industry. Combining rigorous detail alongside exercises and PowerPoint slides for each chapter, this textbook helps finance students understand the wide breadth of financial systems and speculates the forthcoming developments in the industry. Women and the Material Culture of Death Beth Fowkes Tobin, 2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death, this collection focuses on the objects women make, the images they keep, the practices they use or are responsible for, and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom. Women's material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead, stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes, collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the death are explored in this collection as well as women's affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life

them into an analytical framework that enables the reader to develop a critical overview of the role of general legal rules and specialised systems of regulation in financial investment. The framework focuses on the role of contract, trusts and regulation as the primary legal influences for financial investment. The first part explores the relationship between investment law and regulation. The second part examines the nature of investments and investors both professional and private. The third part discusses the central role of corporate finance and corporate governance in linking investors with enterprises that require external capital. The fourth part examines the nature, operation and regulation of markets and the participants that support the functioning of the markets. The objective remains to provide a broadly based and critical account of the role of law in financial investment. MacNeil's eloquent and informative distillation of the regulatory fundamentals of investment law gives his book much international relevance, a timely contribution to help readers decipher the seemingly inextricable maze of financial regulation. Practitioners and legal policy advisers will welcome it. They should find enlightening the book's careful scrutiny of the trust and contractual foundations of investment law and practice. Benjamin J Richardson Journal of International Banking Law and Regulation Vol 22 Issue 1 2007 a fascinating and informative book thoroughly recommended as a learned but at the same time very readable introduction to the law of financial investment. Gerard McCormack Banking and Finance Law Review Volume 21 No 2 June 2006 very informative tool that introduces in a very friendly and accessible manner the nearly inextricable world of financial investment laws. Fadi Moghaizel International Company and Commercial Law Review Vol 17 No 2 February 2006
