The MCAT Writing Sample and Verbal Reasoning Sammy R Browne, 2025-04-15 Swarms, Viral Writing, and the Local Carl Whithaus, 2025-04-15 Swarms Viral Writing and the Local examines the social and rhetorical dynamics around emerging writing technologies Carl Whithaus argues that these dynamics work across networked publics as patterns of behavior and ways of interacting through and with multimodal texts This rhetorical analysis of the production and reception of born digital rhetoric shows the ongoing and evolving impacts of online public discourse that can lead to bad restaurant reviews or the subversion of democracy It is a networked process that gains significance because of the interplay and tensions between the global and the local As these texts are created distributed received and then recreated and shared again in viral ways different messages resonate across media ecologies Whithaus documents how emerging social dynamics shape and are shaped by digital writing reading and distribution technologies Academic Writing for Geographers James A. Tyner, 2023-08-21 There are many how to books on writing for academics none of these however relate specifically to the discipline of geography In this book the author identifies the principle modes of academic writing that graduate students and early career faculty will encounter specifically focusing on those forms expected of geographers that is those modes that are reviewed by academic peers This book is readily accessible to senior undergraduate and graduate students and early career faculty who may feel intimidated by the process of writing This volume is not strictly a how to or step by step manual for writing an article or book rather through the use of real concrete examples from published and unpublished works the author demystifies the process of different types of scholarly pieces geographers have to write with the specific needs and challenges of the discipline in mind Although chapters are thematic based e g stand alone chapters on book reviews articles and books the manuscript is structured around the concept of story telling for it is the author's contention that all writing whether a scientific study or more humanist essay is a form of story telling Guide to Writing Empirical Papers, Theses, and Dissertations G. David Garson, 2001-11-21 Describes the quantitative research process framing analytical questions developing a comprehensive outline providing a roadmap for the reader and accessing indispensable computer and program tools Supplies end of chapter checklists extensive examples and bibliographies A Guide to Writing Sociology Papers Roseann Giarrusso, University of California, Los Angeles. Sociology Writing Group, 2001-02-15 Ideal for instructors and students in a wide range of sociological courses this guide makes the case that thinking and writing are integrally related and that writing therefore exercises the sociological imagination Written in a clear and conversational style A Guide to Writing Sociology Papers examines a wide range of writing assignments for sociology courses at all levels of the curriculum Employing a variety of writing samples as a means to illustrate effective writing this brief and inexpensive text teaches students how to deftly research and write about sociology The Write Approach Olivia Stockard, 2023-11-27 Provides techniques to help business writers translate their skills in analysis and logic into successful letters memos and reports This book includes exercises worksheets sample revisions and covers memos and letters It teaches how to judge writing quality and incorporates writing samples from large and small businesses
