LC-MS/MS in the Mycotoxins Studies Laura Gámiz-Gracia,Ana M. García-Campaña,Natalia Arroyo-Manzanares,2020-06-17 Mycotoxins are secondary metabolites produced by the fungi of different species mainly Aspergillus Fusarium and Penicillium with toxic effects for humans and animals These mycotoxins can contaminate food and feed The European Union EU has established the maximum permitted or recommended levels for well known mycotoxins in different foodstuffs However there are other mycotoxins that are not included in the regulations the emerging mycotoxins whose toxicity is still not clear and the modified or masked mycotoxins produced as a consequence of a detoxification strategy of the host plant of the fungus or during food processing These mycotoxins could pose a risk and should also be taken into account In order to assure consumers health analytical methods for the accurate determination of mycotoxins in different food matrices and feeds are required In this sense liquid chromatography tandem mass spectrometry LC MS MS is a powerful tool for their unique identification and quantification Moreover the use of high resolution mass spectrometry HRMS allows one to identify novel mycotoxins and targeted untargeted approaches for study This Special Issue compiles recent applications of LC MS MS in mycotoxin studies as well as the development and validation of new analytical methods for their identification and quantification in different food matrices and feed occurrence studies and the biomonitoring of mycotoxins and their metabolites in biological fluids The Handbook of International Higher Education Darla K. Deardorff,Hans de Wit,Betty Leask,Harvey Charles,2023-07-03 Co published with AIEAInternational higher education has evolved in some respects dramatically in the decade since publication of the first edition of this handbook The new issues trends practices and priorities of research that evolved over this time have in some instances been transformed by one of the most dynamic and tumultuous periods in the history of international higher education brought on by the pandemic a re emergence of nationalism and the recognition of the power imbalances between the developed economies and the global south and racial inequities within and across borders This new edition addresses the myriad changes across all aspects of international education each chapter addressing to the extent possible the reality of the present in which they were written and offering some insights for the future While updating a number of chapters from the first edition it also includes a preponderance of new chapters written by contributors representing wider and more diverse backgrounds In keeping with the first edition the overall message is that the internationalization of higher education has a vital role to play in a world that is more interconnected than ever before Recognizing changing economic geopolitical climatic and public health issues as well as the importance of international and cross cultural collaboration to address global problems this handbook offers a comprehensive range of models data and ideas to stimulate new directions in the conception and practice of international education This edition reflects today's concerns around inclusion diversity and equity and how international education is being changed by issues such as decolonization the focus on learning outcomes the impact of digital tools to enhance access and learning and collaboration such a virtual exchange competition for resources risk new patterns of mobility and new models such as joint programs and qualifications As with the first edition the chapters often intentionally pair scholars and practitioners from different parts of the world and include text boxes that highlight concrete institutional national or regional experiences providing diverse voices and perspectives from around the world This comprehensive new edition provides ideas concepts theories and practical ideas from around the world for those seeking to enhance the quality of the three core functions of higher education teaching research and service to society It constitutes an essential resource for everyone involved in the delivery of international education and in determining its future direction Summary of Contents Maintaining a similar structure of the first edition this revised Handbook is comprised of four sections The first section includes five chapters that address national regional and international frameworks and contexts The second addresses key aspects of internationalization at the strategy level covering leadership institutional strategies outcomes assessment resources and financing risk management and institutional linkages and partnerships The third describes core functions of internationalization addressing intercultural competence development the internationalization of the curriculum teaching and learning virtual exchange international perspectives on the work of student affairs professionals student engagement engaging staff and faculty the internationalization of research and finally and a chapter on serving communities

Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi

Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Mischief Making Nicola Levell, 2021-10-15 In a gorgeously illustrated exploration of the art of Michael Nicoll Yahgulanaas Mischief Making disproves any notion that play is frivolous Deploying mischievous tactics Yahgulanaas shines a spotlight on serious topics Expressive and exuberant comic and imaginative these characteristics suffuse the work of the internationally recognized creator of Haida manga His distinctive style stretches twists and flips the formlines of classic Haida art to create imagery that resonates with the graphic vitality of Asian manga Mischief Making delineates the evolution of the artist s visual practice into a uniquely hybrid aesthetic uncovering its philosophical underpinnings This engaging beautiful book reveals the artist s deep understanding of the seriousness of play As he investigates the intersections of Indigenous and other worldviews the politics of land cultural heritage and global ecology Yahgulanaas disrupts the expected allowing different ways of experiencing knowing and seeing the world to emerge
