Utopian Universities Miles Taylor, Jill Pellew, 2020-11-12 In a remarkable decade of public investment in higher education some 200 new university campuses were established worldwide between 1961 and 1970 This volume offers a comparative and connective global history of these institutions illustrating how their establishment intellectual output and pedagogical experimentation sheds light on the social and cultural topography of the long 1960s With an impressive geographic coverage using case studies from Europe the Americas Africa and Asia the book explores how these universities have influenced academic disciplines and pioneered new types of teaching architectural design and student experience From educational reform in West Germany to the establishment of new institutions with progressive interdisciplinary curricula in the Commonwealth the illuminating case studies of this volume demonstrate how these universities shared in a common cause the embodiment of utopian ideals of living learning and governance At a time when the role of higher education is fiercely debated Utopian Universities is a timely and considered intervention that offers a wide ranging historical dimension to contemporary predicaments Race in American Literature and Culture John Ernest,2022-06-16 Exploring the unsteady foundations of American literary history Race in American Literature and Culture examines the hardening of racial fault lines throughout the nineteenth century and into the twentieth while considering aspects of the literary and interrelated traditions that emerged from this fractured cultural landscape A multicultural study of the influential and complex presence of race in the American imagination the book pushes debate in exciting new directions Offering expert explorations of how the history of race has been represented and written about it shows in what ways those representations and writings have influenced wider American culture Distinguished scholars from African American Latinx Asian American Native American and white American studies foreground the conflicts in question across different traditions and different modes of interpretation and are thus able comprehensively and creatively to address in the volume how and why race has been so central to American literature as a whole Crown Jewel Wilderness Lauren Danner,2021-06-18 Remote rugged and spectacularly majestic with stunning alpine meadows and jagged peaks that soar beyond ten thousand feet North Cascades National Park is one of the Pacific Northwest s crown jewels Now in the first full length account Lauren Danner chronicles its creation just in time for the park s fiftieth anniversary in 2018 The North Cascades range benefited from geographic isolation that shielded its mountains from extensive resource extraction and development Efforts to establish a park began as early as 1892 but gained traction after World War II as economic affluence sparked national interest in wilderness preservation and growing concerns about the impact of harvesting timber to meet escalating postwar housing demands As the environmental movement matured a 1950s Glacier Peak study mobilized conservationists to seek establishment of a national park that prioritized wilderness Concerned about the National Park Service s policy favoring development for tourism and the United States Forest Service s policy promoting logging in the national forests conservationists leveraged a changing political environment and the evolving environmental values of the natural resource agencies to achieve the goal of permanent wilderness protection Their grassroots activism became increasingly sophisticated eventually leading to the compromise that resulted in the 1968 creation of Washington s magnificent third national park

Recovering the Voice in Our Techno-Social World Deborah Eicher-Catt,2020-02-18 Using a communicological perspective Recovering the Voice in our Techno Social World On the Phone identifies voice phone in Greek as the essential medium for a re enchantment of human communication in our highly impersonal techno social environment This book is a response to the growing concern by social critics that we are becoming a de voiced society because of our preferences for hyper textual image based forms of electronic connectivity Ironically while we are increasingly on the phone we are sacrificing our vocality within immediate ear to ear relations Framed by the trope of enchantment Deborah Eicher Catt argues that the immediacy of the sounding voice calls us and enchants us to make possible productive moments of resonance in which we might cultivate an interpersonal resilience in today s fast paced media saturated environment Scholars of media studies communication and sociology will find this book particularly useful

Race and the Wild West Laura J. Arata, 2020-07-02 Winner of the Western Writers of America SPUR Award and the Western Association of Women Historians Gita Chaudhuri Prize Born a slave in eastern Tennessee Sarah Blair Bickford 1852 1931 made her way while still a teenager to Montana Territory where she settled in the mining boomtown of Virginia City Race and the Wild West is the first full length biography of this remarkable woman whose life story affords new insight into race and belonging in the American West around the turn of the twentieth century For many years Sarah Bickford s known biography fit into a single paragraph By examining her life in all its complexity Arata fills in what were long believed to be unrecoverable silent spaces in her story Before establishing herself as a successful business owner we learn she was twice married both times to white men Her first husband an Irish immigrant physically abused her until she divorced him in 1881 Their three children all died before the age of ten In 1883 she married Stephen Bickford and gave birth to four more children Upon his death she inherited his shares of the Virginia City Water Company acquiring sole ownership in 1917 For the final decade of her life Bickford actively preserved and promoted a historic Virginia City building best known as the site of the brutal lynching in 1864 of five men Her conspicuous role in developing an early form of heritage tourism challenges long standing narratives that place white men at the center of the Wild West myth and its promotion Bickford s story offers a window into the dynamics of race in the rural West Although her experiences defy easy categorization what is clear is that her navigation of social norms and racial barriers did not hinge on exceptionalism or tokenism Instead she built a life that deserves to be understood on its own terms Through exhaustive research and nuanced analysis Laura J Arata advances our understanding of a woman whose life embodied the contradictory intersections of hope and disappointment that characterized life in the early twentieth century American West for brave pioneers of many races

Debt Capital Markets Vincenzo Bavoso, 2024-11-11 Debt capital markets have been at the heart of regulatory and policy debates since the global financial crisis of 2008 In this work Vincenzo Bavoso explores the role financial markets and products have in fuelling episodes of crises and financial instability Focussing on the law and regulation but also drawing on current economics and finance scholarship Debt Capital Markets examines both the pre 2008 regulatory environment and the framework that has emerged from post crisis regulatory corrections since Charting the evolution of debt capital markets and the transformation and liberalisation of the financial markets throughout the 1980s and 1990s the book outlines how debt capital markets from bonds to more sophisticated forms of securitised credit have become engines of private debt creation excessive levels of leverage and inevitably financial instability It covers all the main channels of debt intermediation in capital markets bonds commercial paper covered bonds securitisation collateralised debt obligations collateralised loan obligations and explains relevant synergies with adjacent markets and products such as credit derivatives repurchase agreements or FinTech lending Bavoso argues that the regulatory response after the 2008 global financial crisis has been insufficient so that debt capital markets remain the main locus of financial instability today His book provides a complex analysis of financial markets that accounts for theoretical practical and regulatory aspects It provides a multifaceted and contextual appraisal of the role of debt capital markets together with the legal and regulatory challenges posed by their development
