I Am Not My Father's Daughter Shanetris Campbell, 2011 A puddle A deposit A life Going through life thinking you're nothing more than a sperm donation To my father rap music multimillionaire and First Amendment crusader Luther Campbell of 2 Live Crew fame that's exactly what I am My name is Shanetris Campbell I was born on September 7 1982 This is the story of my life Molded by the abuse of my mother and the poisonous venom of my father I bounced back and forth throughout my childhood from the housing projects of Miami's notorious Liberty City to the luxurious environs of my father's mansions and yachts African Memoirs and Cultural Representations Toyin Falola, 2023-02-14 Traditions and cultures represent a set of persisting or prevailing beliefs social practices oral linguistic and values that define an individual's way of life In other words in memoir writing the emphasis is often to propagate a unilateral need or embrace of self identity However the dominant narrative and method of analysis in this study holds the notion and privileges that tradition and cultures imbibed by memoirists are sometimes subverted refashioned or reworked due to the strand of experiences or realities they encounter in different spaces as their narration develops Thus memoirists embrace indifference and open mindedness which is also greatly explored in the context of autobiography Alzheimer's Disease Memoirs Pramod K Nayar,2021-12-06 This book examines writings by people living with Alzheimer s Disease and their caregivers Its focus areas include the construction of the self in the face of diminishing linguistic and cognitive abilities the stigmatization of ageing the various narrative strategies that these texts often collaborative employ the health activism and advocacy generated via a biosociality and the ethics of care It examines the disease writing genre about a condition that ravages the ability to use language It serves as a literary examination of the work done in this area through a critical reading of the memoirs of those with AD and caregivers and a healthy dose of literary theory The book is a valuable resource for those interested in literary and critical theory and researchers in the field of ageing dementia studies The Works of Daniel De Foe, with a Memoir of His Life and Writings. By William Hazlitt. The Memoirs of Lady Hyegyong JaHyun Kim Haboush,2013-09-14 Lady Hyegyong s memoirs which recount the chilling murder of her husband by his father form one of the best known and most popular classics of Korean literature From 1795 until 1805 Lady Hyegyong composed this masterpiece depicting a court life Shakespearean in its pathos drama and grandeur Presented in its social cultural and historical contexts this first complete English translation opens a door into a world teeming with conflicting passions political intrigue and the daily preoccupations of a deeply intelligent and articulate woman JaHyun Kim Haboush s accurate fluid translation captures the intimate and expressive voice of this consummate storyteller Reissued nearly twenty years after its initial publication with a new foreword by Dorothy Ko The Memoirs of Lady Hyegyong is a unique exploration of Korean selfhood and an extraordinary example of autobiography in the premodern era The Complete Works of Shakespeare. [Edited by A. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians' biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio's Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University George Rowland Howe, 1847-1917; a Son's Tribute Herbert Barber Howe, 1920 George Rowland Howe was born in New York City and died in East Orange New Jersey
