JENKINS,2012-04 In this first Book of the Nocturnity Series we follow Todd Jennings who bought a soul as a joke No one is laughing as an ancient evil is stirred into action As a result of his purchase he begins a journey of self discovery supernatural experiences and tests of moral conviction Follow along as the forces of darkness try to manipulate the world around him in an attempt to lead him from the path of light

At the Heart of It All? Anne Overbeck,2019-01-29 The structure of the African American family has been a recurring theme in American discourse on the African American community The role of African American mothers especially has been the cause of heated debates since the time of Reconstruction in the 19th century The discourse which often saw the African American family as something that needed fixing also put the issue of women s reproductive rights on the political agenda Taking a long term perspective from the 1920s to the early 1990s Anne Overbeck aims to show how normative notions of the American family influenced the perspective on the African American family especially African American women The book follows the negotiations on African American women s reproductive rights within the context of eugenics modernization theory overpopulation and the War on Drugs Thereby it sets out to trace both continuities and changes in the discourse on the reproductive rights of African American women that still influence our perspective on the African American family today
