Fields, 2010-10-01 Female Gladiators is the first book to examine legal and social battles over the right of women to participate with men in contact sports The impetus to begin legal proceedings was the 1972 enactment of Title IX which prohibited discrimination in educational settings but it was the Equal Protection Clause of the U S Constitution and the equal rights amendments of state constitutions that ultimately opened doors Despite court rulings however many in American society resisted and continue to resist allowing girls in dugouts and other spaces traditionally defined as male territories Inspired women and girls began to demand access to the contact sports which society had previously deemed too strenuous or violent for them to play When the leagues continued to bar girls simply because they were not boys the girls went to court Sarah K Fields's Female Gladiators is the only book to examine the legal and social battles over gender and contact sport that continue to rage today The Penn State Alumni News Pennsylvania College. The 158-Pound Marriage John Irving,2018-05-15 Irving looks cunningly beyond the eye catching gyrations of the mating dance to the morning after implications The Washington Post The darker vision and sexual ambiguities of this sensual ironic tale about a marriage a quater in a New England university town foreshadow those of The World According to Garp but this very trim and precise novel is a marked departure from the author's generally robust boisterous style Though Mr Irving's cool eye spares none of his foursome he writes with genuine compassion for the sexual tests and illusions they perpetrate on each other but the sexual intrigue between them demonstrates how even the kind can be ungenerous and even the well intentioned destructive One of the most remarkable things about John Irving's first three novels viewed from the vantage of The World According to Garp is that they can be read as one extended fictional enterprise The 158 Pound Marriage is as lean and concentrated as a mine shaft Terrence Des Pres Deft hard hitting What Irving demonstrates beautifully is that a one to one relationship is more demanding than a free for all The New York Times Book Review

Titch Remembers Titch Laudrigan,2022-08-11 Men will die upon dogma but not fall victim to conclusion John Henry Newman In this exciting autobiography Titch Laudrigan narrates his well traveled and adventurous life and how he found that life is a constantly moving path As the son of a career Air Force officer Laudrigan grew up accustomed to moving from place to place and back again Constantly relocating and always losing or making new friends was a norm in his young life He enjoyed the travel and the thrill of living overseas but he often wished to just be away from his abusive dysfunctional family When he was finally old enough to move he did and far away he went From herding specialized food animals in the highlands of Central Mexico to backpacking in Europe to schooling in Paris and Britain to working as a Navy journalist and more Laudrigan has had a life well lived and he shares all in this memoir A narrative of things seen and done Titch

Remembers gives insight into a rare life indeed Four Days With Kenny Tedford Paul Smith,2019-11-26 Kenny Tedford is one of only two deaf people in the world with a master's degree in storytelling which he earned at 55 almost half a century after being told by teachers and psychologists that he would never complete the third grade Oxygen deprivation in utero resulted in Kenny being born deaf partial blindness partial paralysis on his left side and an inability to speak clearly until the age of 10 Kenny also suffers cognitive impairment similar to the fictional character Forrest Gump which gives him the same child like innocence and leads to the same sort of hilarious misunderstandings and malaprops that made Gump both lovable and entertaining Kenny s life could easily have been nothing but a depressingly sullen tale of victimhood Instead it turned out to be one filled with a unique combination of joy humor friendship heartbreak accomplishment faith and peace
