Professionalizing Your English Language Teaching Christine Coombe, Neil J Anderson, Lauren Stephenson, 2020-10-22 Written by leading experts in the field of TESOL this book explores the literature on various topic areas and demonstrates how teachers can increase their levels of professionalism by acquiring some general and field specific strategies Being a teaching professional is not simply about having the right teaching qualifications and good academic standing it involves a commitment to being innovative and transformative in the classroom and helping both students and colleagues achieve their goals A dictionary definition of professionalism reads as follows professionalism is the conduct aims or qualities that characterize or mark a profession or a professional person and it defines a profession as a calling requiring specialized knowledge and often long and intensive academic preparation Merriam

Webster 2013 However according to Bowman 2013 professionalism is less a matter of what professionals actually do and more a matter of who they are as human beings Both of these views imply that professionalism encompasses a number of different attributes and together these attributes identify and define a professional The book is primarily intended for teachers at all levels and in all contexts who are interested in improving their professionalism and developing strategies that can take them to higher levels in the field of TESOL ELT Leadership from the Ground Up Michele A.

Acker-Hocevar, Marta I. Cruz-Janzen, Cynthia L. Wilson, 2012-01-01 This book chronicles the journey of seven schools serving students of poverty English Language Learners ELLs and students of color which were able to sustain school improvement for a decade on either state and or national criteria that measure student performance outcomes The book shares stories of these seven schools and demonstrates that it takes an entire school working together with their communities adding to the social and cultural capital of their students and families to create and nurture what we call a Learning Partnership for sustainable school improvement The answers for how these schools sustained school improvement and are effective schools is evident from their school student metrics that validate the school's ability to meet and sustain external mandates of high performance over time The seven individual case stories illustrate that what matters most is what happens in the school itself It is the internal culture of caring and respecting each other and working from an additive perspective of valuing students for their unique gifts and abilities rather than exclusively focusing on increasing test scores that makes these school stories unique This is not about heroic leadership but leadership spread out and shared among professionals working together to achieve common goals around shared values and beliefs This book is about using resources in ways that value human capital as the greatest asset in the school to ensure that educators feel a sense of commitment connection and passion for their work together with students their families and their communities that enable them to excel together We offer readers seven cases that demonstrate there is no cookie cutter approach to having an effective school Rather there is a theory in practice that grounds the Learning Partnership depicted as a tree within a sustainable school improvement culture This sustainable culture connects shared leadership and accountability resourcefulness a humanistic philosophy additive schooling and results in an organization synergy that sustains organizational and collective efficacy for achieving results in these schools that other educators in schools with similar demographics are often unable to sustain or attain Reflections on Language Teacher

Identity Research Gary Barkhuizen, 2016-11-10 Reflections on Language Teacher Identity Research is the first book to present understandings of language teacher identity LTI from a broad range of research fields Drawing on their personal research experience 41 contributors locate LTI within their area of expertise by considering their conceptual understanding of LTI and the methodological approaches used to investigate it The chapters are narrative in nature and take the form of guided reflections within a common chapter structure with authors embedding their discussions within biographical accounts of their professional lives and research work Authors weave discussions of LTI into their own research biographies employing a personal reflective style This book also looks to future directions in LTI research with suggestions for research topics and methodological approaches This is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in language teacher identity as well as language teaching and research more generally Action Research for English Language Arts Teachers Mary Buckelew, Janice Ewing, 2019-03-13 Offering preservice and inservice teachers a guide to navigate the rapidly changing landscape of English Language Arts education this book provides a fresh perspective on what it means to be a teacher researcher in ELA contexts Inviting teachers to view inquiry and reflection as intrinsic to their identity and mission Buckelew and Ewing walk readers through the inquiry process from developing an actionable focus to data collection and analysis to publication and the exploration of ongoing questions Providing thoughtful and relevant protocols and models for teacher inquiry this book establishes a theoretical foundation and offers practical ready to use tools and strategies for engaging in the inquiry process in the context of teachers communities Action Research for English Language Arts Teachers Invitation to Inquiry includes a variety of examples and scenarios of ELA teachers in diverse contexts ensuring that this volume is relevant and accessible to all educators Quality in TESOL and Teacher Education Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo, 2019-10-17 This volume takes a holistic view of the current trends and challenges in quality and quality assurance in TESOL and teacher education Bringing together top scholars in the field from all over the world the text features invaluable international perspectives with the common objective of improving the quality in TESOL and teacher education in constantly changing and challenging educational contexts globally Grouped into four wide ranging thematic sections on multilingualism diversity teacher education and future challenges the book addresses new obstacles faced by educational professionals in today s rapidly changing educational landscape by offering alternatives to quantitative targets Chapter authors cover a range of contexts and timely issues including technology in the classroom culturally relevant teaching teaching for continuous improvement professional development and monitoring and evaluating quality Providing a forum of discussion on the intricacies complexities and challenges related to the urgent question of quality in the field this book is a must read for prospective ESL EFL teachers and teacher educators Proceedings of the 2024 3rd International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2024) Mohd Fauzi bin Sedon, Intakhab Alam Khan, Mehmet Cüneyt Birkök, KinSun Chan, 2024-06-20 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc
