Wilson Ozuem, Michelle Willis, 2022-03-21 Online brand communities OBCs are hugely important in the development of marketing strategy but it is unclear how marketers can effectively utilise these platforms to enhance and develop consumer engagement For an online brand community to be successful it should allow members to feel a connection to the brand and with other members while forming a disconnection from those not belonging to the community It should also have rituals and traditions that join members together over a revered commonality and moral responsibility in contributing to the community Indeed brands play active roles in securing degrees of activity in OBCs through content that offers members the quality of engagement they seek This book focuses on contemporary digital marketing issues in OBCs offering a comprehensive examination of consumers response to active engagement in such communities It discusses how brands can tap into the various levels of participation engagement and online conversations in the development of marketing strategy and ultimately examines how an online brand community strengthens value co creation Balancing theory with practical approaches this book gives serious treatment to an important yet until now overlooked area of digital marketing strategy providing an important resource for scholars students and practitioners Handbook on Economics of Discrimination and

Shared Services in Local Government Ray Tomkinson, 2017-03-02 Despite the pressure for local councils to follow the lead of the private sector and develop shared service and partnership arrangements the barriers in terms of culture differences in priorities across councils and lack of experience are formidable yet this is the most likely source of meeting government targets for reduced overheads and improved organizational effectiveness By using extensive case studies drawn
