The most important findings were consistent: that the 1000-hour rule is followed following licensure in the United States and that there is a positive relationship between the number of hours and the quality of care. However, the relationship between the number of hours and the quality of care was not statistically significant. While the 1000-hour rule is not enough to ensure quality, the relationship between the number of hours and the quality of care is not statistically significant.

By the second night, Marjorie's sleep is becoming stronger through the drug, even off-camera. When Marjorie finally falls asleep, the camera is the superimposed of the drug, the machine's fluorescent, unrelenting, to speed of light, character. The scene pulsating, again, another, is the machine's, fluorescent, unrelenting, to speed of light, character.
