

- Essential resources — identifies any specialist resources needed to allow learners to generate the evidence required for each unit. The centre will be asked to ensure that any requirements are in place when it seeks approval from Edexcel to offer the qualification.
- Indicative reading for learners — provides a short list of learner resource material that benchmark the level of study.

Assessment

The assessment for the Edexcel Level 5 BTEC Diploma in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector is criterion referenced and is based on the achievement of specified criteria. Each of the units contain contextualised pass criteria for unit assessment.

The Diploma in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector units are internally assessed. Centre assessment will be externally examined by the external examiner, who is appointed annually by Edexcel. The overall grading for Certificate in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector is a pass, based upon the successful completion of the units and eight practical teaching observations.

Learners must pass all the mandatory units as well as the required number of option units to achieve sufficient credits for the Edexcel Level 5 BTEC Diploma in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector.

This is demonstrated by the ability to apply the knowledge and understanding in a practical teaching context. The emphasis is on the ability to develop and apply the skills and knowledge required in the successful delivery of learning.

Centres are encouraged to use a variety of assessment methods, including assignments, case studies and work-based assessments, along with projects, performance observation and time-constrained assessments. Practical application of the assessment criteria in a realistic scenario should be emphasised and maximum use made of practical work experience.

Assignments constructed for assessment by centres should be valid, reliable and fit for purpose, building on the application of the assessment criteria. Care must be taken to ensure that assignments used for assessment of a unit cover all the criteria for that unit as set out in the Assessment criteria section. It is advised that the criteria which an assignment is designed to cover should be clearly indicated in the assignment to (a) provide a focus for learners (for transparency and to help ensure that feedback is specific to the criteria) and (b) assist with internal standardisation processes. Tasks and activities should enable learners to produce evidence that directly relates to the specified criteria. It is essential that the external examiner is given the opportunity to review and comment on assessment activities before they are given out to learners.

It is essential that internal verification begins with the assessment being agreed and negotiated by those involved with the delivery before issuing it to learners. Assessment activities being used for the first time must be sent to the external examiner for approval before use, to ensure they address the appropriate level, meet identified assessment criteria and provide clear opportunities to link practice and research.

A Rhetoric of Reflection Kathleen Yancey, 2016-08-15 Reflection in writing studies is now entering a third generation Dating from the 1970s the first generation of reflection focused on identifying and describing internal cognitive processes assumed to be part of composing The second generation operating in both classroom and assessment scenes in the 1990s developed mechanisms for externalizing reflection making it visible and thus explicitly available to help writers Now a third generation of work in reflection is emerging As mapped by the contributors to A Rhetoric of Reflection this iteration of research and practice is taking up new questions in new sites of activity and with new theories It comprises attention to transfer of writing knowledge and practice teaching and assessment portfolios linguistic and cultural difference and various media including print and digital It conceptualizes conversation as a primary reflective medium both inside and outside the classroom and for individuals and collectives and articulates the role that different genres play in hosting reflection Perhaps most important in the work of this third generation is the identification and increasing appreciation of the epistemic value of reflection of its ability to help make new meanings and of its rhetorical power for both scholars and students Contributors Anne Beaufort Kara Taczak Liane Robertson Michael Neal Heather Ostman Cathy Leaker Bruce Horner Asao B Inoue Tyler Richmond J Elizabeth Clark Naomi Silver Christina Russell McDonald Pamela Flash Kevin Roozen Jeff Sommers Doug Hesse

Gender, Experience, and Knowledge in Adult Learning Elana Michelson, 2015-05-15 In this wide ranging book Elana Michelson invites us to revisit basic understandings of the experiential learner How does experience come to be seen as the basis of knowledge How do gender class and race enter into the ways in which knowledge is valued What political and cultural belief systems underlie such practices as the assessment of prior learning and the writing of life narratives Drawing on a range of disciplines from feminist theory and the politics of knowledge to literary criticism Michelson argues that particular understandings of experiential learning have been central to modern Western cultures and the power relationships that underlie them Presented in four parts this challenging and lively book asks educators of adults to think in new ways about their assumptions theories and practices Part I provides readers with a short history of the notion of experiential learning Part II brings the insights and concerns of feminist theory to bear on mainstream theories of experiential learning Part III examines the assessment of prior experiential learning for academic credit and or professional credentials Part IV addresses a second pedagogical practice that is ubiquitous in adult learning namely the assigning of life narratives Gender Experience and Knowledge in Adult Learning will be of value to scholars and graduate students exploring adult and experiential learning as well as academics wishing to introduce students to a broad range of feminist critical race materialist and postmodernist thinking in the field
