The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07
More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries.

breaking study of the standardisation of English goes well beyond the traditional prescriptivism versus descriptivism debate It argues that the way norms are established and enforced is the result of a complex network of social factors and cannot be explained simply by appeals to power and hegemony It brings together insights from leading researchers to re centre the discussion on linguistic communities and language users It examines the philosophy underlying the urge to standardise language and takes a closer look at both well known and lesser known historical dictionaries grammars and usage guides demonstrating that they cannot be simply labelled as prescriptivist Drawing on rich empirical data and case studies it shows how the norm continues to function in society influencing and affecting language users even today *The American School
