Practical Peer-to-Peer Teaching and Learning on the Social Web Hai-Jew, Shalin, 2021-11-19. On the Social Web, people share their enthusiasms and expertise on almost every topic, and based on this, learners can find resources created by individuals with varying expertise. Through this trend and the wide availability of video cameras and authoring tools, people are creating DIY resources and sharing their knowledge, skills, and abilities broadly. While these resources are increasing in availability, what has not been explored is the effectiveness of these resources: peer-to-peer teaching and learning, and how well this content prepares learners for professional roles. Practical Peer-to-Peer Teaching and Learning on the Social Web explores the efficacies of online teaching and learning with materials by peers and provides insights into what is made available for teaching and learning by the broad public It also considers intended and unintended outcomes of open shared learning online and discusses practical ethics in teaching and learning online Covering topics such as learner roles and instructional design it is ideal for teachers instructional designers and developers software developers user interface designers researchers academicians and students Designing for Tomorrow: Innovation and Equity in Global Interaction Design Ganesh Bhutkar,Sheethal Tom,Debjani Roy,Jose Abdelnour-Nocera,2025-07-23 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the First IFIP Working Group 13.8 Interaction Design for International Development IDID 2024 held in Mumbai India during November 7-9 2024 The 14 full papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 17 submissions The aim of this working group is to pursue research and promote the discipline of Human Computer Interaction HCI in an international context It also provides a platform where both emerging and experienced researchers from academia and industry can converge to exchange their latest findings in the ever evolving realm of HCI and International Development
