MADRID, Saturday. — A man was killed, several seriously injured and two children were accidentally shot dead in clashes between rival organizations at Malaga yesterday. The death toll for the past four days is 12 persons.

The situation which has arisen in consequence of the general strike and the conflict between Socialists and Communists, is becoming hourly more serious. The chief of the Municipal Police was recently fired on while walking through the streets.

Clashes are collecting visitors on the outskirts of Malaga. Police in armoured cars have been conveying the mails to Gibraltar. Reinforcements of the Civil Guard and police have arrived at Algeciras from Cadix owing to the fear of disturbances during the annual fair this Sunday.

Explosion in Haila Train

Britain's Attitude Surprises French

(British Colonial Wireless Press and Reuters)

LONDON, Saturday. — Considerable surprise, and a flurry in diplomatic and political circles, have been caused by Mr. Neville Chamberlain's speech at a political dinner in London on Thursday night when he criticised suggestions that League sanctions should be continued or intensified.

The French and Belgian Ambassadors visited the Foreign Office today to discuss the speech. It is understood that the change of British attitude as voiced by the Chancellor of the Exchequer has completely surprised both

(From Our Own Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, Saturday. — Eighteen Jewish passengers were injured, three of them seriously, when a bomb exploded in a third-class coach on the Haila-Lydda train yesterday morning just as the train was pulling out of Haila station. The train stopped immediately. Nine of the wounded persons, including four women and a child of six, are still in hospital.

The outrage occurred at about 10.30. There was a rush for the exits when the missile was seen, with its fuse burning, rolling down the floor between the seats. One passenger jumped through a window and received cuts and abrasions.

POLETS AS BUS DRIVERS

Polonois acted as bus drivers yesterday on the No. 4 route in Jerusalem, plying between the General Post Office and Katamon suburb.

Jewish bus drivers, who at the request of the authorities are carrying on the service during the strike of Arab drivers, were off for the Sabbath.

NEW DEFENCE REGULATIONS

Grim Powers For Civil Courts

Further regulations to deal with lawlessness have been started under or amended in connection with the Palestine (Defence) Order-in-Council 1933 emergency regulations and published in a Gazette Extraordinary dated June 12.

Under the new enactment, civil courts are empowered to inflict the death penalty on life imprisonment on persons convicted of being in possession of the sword, dirk or fighting knives, and the Palestine Police Force, the Harbour Police or other agencies, in connection with the working of harbours, railways, waterways, power stations, transmission lines, or water supply systems, and for dealing with or interfering with any telegraph, or telephone line, or apparatus or wireless installation, or any other apparatus.

Daniela Niemeyer

Newspaper Death Penalty:

The Penalty is Death Marlin Shipman, 2002 In 1872 Susan Eberhart was convicted of murder for helping her lover to kill his wife The Atlanta Constitution ran a story about her hanging in Georgia that covered slightly more than four full columns of text In an editorial sermon about her the Constitution said that Miss Eberhart not only committed murder but also committed adultery and violated the sanctity of marriage An 1890 article in the Elko Independent said of Elizabeth Potts who was hanged for murder To her we look for everything that is gentle and kind and tender and we can scarcely conceive her capable of committing the highest crime known to the law Indeed at the time this attitude was also applied to women in general By 1998 the press's and society's attitudes had changed dramatically A columnist from Texas wrote that convicted murderess Karla Faye Tucker should not be spared just because she was a woman The author went on to say that women could be just as violent and aggressive as men the idea that women are defenseless and need men's protection is probably the last vestige of institutionalized sexism that needs to be rubbed out

The Death Penalty Roger Hood, Carolyn Hoyle, 2015-01-08 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasising the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fuelled challenges to the death penalty and they analyse and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal

The Death of the American Death Penalty Larry Wayne Koch, Colin D. Wark, Colin Wark, John F. Galliher, 2012 The death penalty has largely disappeared as a national legislative issue and the Supreme Court has mainly bowed out leaving the states at the cutting edge of abolition politics This essential guide presents and explains the changing political and cultural challenges to capital punishment at the state level As with their previous volume America Without the Death Penalty Northeastern 2002 the authors of this completely new volume concentrate on the local and regional relationships between death penalty abolition and numerous empirical factors such as economic conditions public sentiment the roles of social political and economic elites the mass media and population diversity They highlight the recent abolition of the practice in New York New Jersey New Mexico and Illinois the near misses in New Hampshire Connecticut Maryland and Nebraska the Kansas rollercoaster rides and the surprising recent decline of the death penalty even in the deep South Abolition of the death penalty in the United States is a piecemeal process with one state after another peeling off from the pack until none is left and the tragic institution finally is no more This book tells you how and why that will likely happen China's Death Penalty Hong Lu, Terance D. Miethe, 2010-06-10 By all accounts China is the world leader in the number of legal executions Its long historical use of capital punishment and its major political and economic changes over time are social facts that make China an ideal context for a case study of the death penalty in law and practice This book examines the death penalty within the changing socio political context of China The authors treatment of China death penalty is legal historical and comparative In particular they examine the substantive and procedures laws surrounding capital punishment in different historical periods the purposes and functions of capital punishment in China in various dynasties changes in the method of imposition and relative prevalence of capital punishment over time the socio demographic profile of the executed and their crimes over the last two decades and comparative practices in other countries Their analyses of the death penalty in contemporary China focus on both its theory how it should be done in law and actual practice based on available secondary reports sources The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado Michael Radelet, 2017-01-15 In The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado noted death penalty scholar Michael Radelet chronicles the details of each capital punishment trial and execution that has taken place in Colorado since 1859 The book describes the debates and struggles that Coloradans have had over the use of the death penalty placing the cases of the 103 men whose sentences were carried out and 100 more who were never executed into the context of a gradual worldwide trend away from this form of punishment For more than 150 years Coloradans have been deeply divided about the death penalty with regular questions about whether it should be expanded restricted or eliminated It has twice been abolished but both times state lawmakers reinstated the contentious punitive measure Prison administrators have contributed to this debate with some refusing to participate in executions and some lending their voices to abolition efforts Colorado has also had a rich history of experimenting with execution methods first hanging prisoners in public and then starting in 1890 using the twitch up gallows for four decades In 1933 Colorado began using a gas chamber and eventually moved to lethal injection in the 1990s Based on meticulous archival research in official state archives library records and multimedia sources The History of the Death Penalty in Colorado will inform the conversation on both sides of the issue anywhere the future of the death penalty is under debate America Without the Death Penalty John F. Galliher, Larry W. Koch, David Patrick Keys, Teresa J. Guess, 2005 In 2000 Governor George Ryan of Illinois a Republican and a supporter of the death penalty declared a moratorium on executions in his state In 2003 he commuted the death sentences of all Illinois prisoners on death row Ryan contended that the application of the death penalty in Illinois had been arbitrary and unfair and he ignited a new round of debate over the appropriateness of execution Nationwide surveys indicate that the number of Americans who favor the death penalty is declining As the struggle over capital punishment rages on twelve states and the District of Columbia have taken bold measures to eliminate the practice This landmark study is the first to examine the history and motivations of those jurisdictions that abolished capital punishment and have resisted the move to reinstate death penalty statutes The Death Penalty on the Ballot Austin Sarat, John Malague, Sarah Wishloff, 2019-04-18 Focuses on what happens when the American public gets decide on the fate of capital punishment The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyoboke Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyoboke Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa America's Death Penalty David Garland, Randall McGowen, Michael Meranze, 2011-01-25 Resource added for the Psychology includes Sociology 108091 courses Unpacking the Death Penalty in ASEAN Sriprapha Petcharamesree, Mark P. Capaldi, Alan Collins, 2023-03-20 This book contributes conceptually theoretically and morally to a deeper understanding of the distinctive Asian perceptions of punishment justice and human rights Researched and prepared by scholars who have not only been conducting studies on the death penalty in the region but have also been advocating for legal reforms this edited book touches upon the different justifications for the use of capital punishment in the ASEAN region exposing the secrecy sensitivities and dilemmas that mask violations of international human rights laws The chapters bring in numerous new perspectives which have been overlooked in the traditional discourse surrounding the use of the death penalty such as that around crimes that do not meet the threshold of most serious the dignity of death row inmates and their families contradictions within religion and capital punishment and the way in which growing authoritarianism and the media are adversely influencing the public s perception and support for capital punishment in the region In examining how public opinion shapes state policies towards the death penalty and how it varies according to different offences and different states the authors critically analyse how the international human rights mechanisms have specifically called for ASEAN member states to refrain from extending the application of the death penalty and to limit it to the most serious crimes Relevant to socio legal scholars focused on crime and punishment in Southeast Asia and in the Global South more broadly this is a landmark collection in criminology and human rights scholarship Chapter ASEAN and the Death Penalty Theoretical and Legal Views and a Pathway to Abolition is available open access under a Creative Commons
