

Finding Salinger

Passage StepReads¹ Vocabulary Question Set

around.

Sonia kicked off her sneakers, which were slightly damp from the day's rain, and hung her jacket next to the door. It was a little bit chilly inside the house, because her mom liked to turn the heat off during the day when no one was home, to save on gas bills. Sonia flipped open the thermostat cover and set the temperature to 80 degrees. She felt like making the house really warm so that she could sit in front of the television wearing just a T-shirt and jeans to watch cartoons, and then she could pretend it was summer again, rather than the seemingly never-ending dreariness that went on for months and months every winter.

She pulled her sweater off over her head and set off to find Salinger so that she could watch cartoons with him. In the afternoons, he could usually be found sunbathing in front of one of the upstairs bedroom windows, but he wasn't in one of his regular spots today. Where could that cat have gone to? She checked the closets and the bathrooms, and did a thorough inspection of the rooms downstairs as well, even looking under all the furniture just to be sure. Was it possible he had gotten out?

"SALINGER!" she yelled at the top of her lungs. "SALINGER, COME HERE!"

After a few minutes, she stopped, feeling a bit silly. Logically, she had known that wouldn't work. It's not like they had ever trained him to answer to his name, and did cats even do that, anyway? Not sure. Sonia made a mental note that when she found Salinger she would try to train him to answer to his name.
