Reading Passage

Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a special day for families in America. They get together to have fun, swim in the pool, eat yummy food, and do other fun things. But, Memorial Day is also a very important day to remember. We must think about the brave men and women who died while serving our country.

Long ago, after the Civil War ended, people started a tradition called Decoration Day. They chose one day, May 30th, to visit the graves of the soldiers who died in the war. They brought flowers, wrote notes, and even made toys to decorate the graves. In 1882, Decoration Day became Memorial Day, and everyone started honoring both Union and Confederate soldiers who died in the Civil War.

But, our country has been involved in many wars since the Civil War. So in 1947, Memorial Day became a special day to remember all the military men and women who died while serving our country. And in 1971, the government decided that Memorial Day would always be celebrated on the last Monday in May.

So, on Memorial Day, we should remember the brave men and women who died while serving our country. We can have fun with our family and friends, but it's important to remember why we celebrate Memorial Day.
