Step 1: Self-Assessment

Instructional Strategy	Level/Score	Current Student Behavior/Learning	Changes in Students Behavior/Learning
Identifying Critical Information	1, Beginning	Students do not focus in on critical information being taught in a lesson.	I would like to see my students focus in on the critical information being taught throughout a lesson.

Step 2: Identify Focus Strategies

Instructional Strategy	Baseline Level/Score and Date	Anticipated Midpoint Growth Level/Score and Date	Anticipated Final Growth Level/Score Goal and Date
Identifying Critical Information	Score: 1, Beginning Date: May 2, 2012	Score: 3, Developing Date: January 2013	Score: 4, Applying Date: May 2013

Step 3: Write Measurable Goals

Goal(s)
By the end of the year, I will raise my score on identifying critical information from a 2 to a 4, and I expect to see students describing the level of importance of the information addressed in class, students explaining why the content is important to pay attention to, and students visibly adjusting their level of engagement when critical information is share.

Step 4: Identify Specific Action Steps and Resources

Teacher/Classroom Action Steps	Resources and Professional Development
-Begin the lesson by explaining why upcoming content is important -Tell students to get ready for some important information -Cue the importance of upcoming information by my tone of voice, body position, level of excitement	- Handbook for the Art and Science of Teaching -School-based professional development offerings on Design Question #2

Step 5: Reflection

Goal #1	Reflection	Date
What am I learning about the strategy?	I realized that I was not pointing out the importance of critical information within my lesson at the beginning of the class period. I did not begin with an activator that helped my students focus in on important vocabulary words. Today in my lesson, I started with key vocabulary and I think it allowed students the opportunity to see what words/phrases would be important for their learning.	11/29/2012
How do I need to prepare my lesson?
When I am using the strategy, what do I feel is working well for me in terms of evidences of improvement in student

Closing the Disadvantage Gap in Schools Finola Wilson,2025-04-24 Many children are leaving school without the learning that they need to navigate the adult world effectively the majority of whom are among the most vulnerable in our society

Closing the Disadvantage Gap in Schools helps teachers and school leaders to understand what educational disadvantage is and what research tells us are the best bets for making sure this disadvantage doesn't stop these children from succeeding in life. Designed as a highly practical workbook with accompanying sketchnotes that bring research to life, it uses reflective questions, worked examples, self-assessment tools, and guided practice tasks to help educators to support the most disadvantaged pupils in their school community to achieve. The book helps staff to understand what causes the attainment gap and what it might look like in school. How to develop a positive school culture that values and supports every child. Use data to identify and track underperformance driven by disadvantage. Improve the quality of teaching and learning for the most vulnerable pupils. Provide targeted support and interventions for pupils who need extra help. Monitor and evaluate the impact of your actions and adapt accordingly. Whether you are a headteacher, a middle leader, or a classroom teacher, this book will equip you with the knowledge and skills to make a lasting difference to the attainment outcomes of the most vulnerable pupils in your school.

Thriving on the Front Lines Bob Bertolino, 2014-03-26 Youth and Family Services (YFS) are part of residential and group homes, schools, social service organizations, hospitals, and family court systems. YFS include prevention, education, positive youth development, foster care, child welfare, and treatment. As YFS has evolved, advances in research have brought forth a host of promising new ideas that both complement and expand on the original underpinnings of strengths-based practice. Thriving on the Front Lines represents an articulation of these advancements. Thriving on the Front Lines explores the use of strengths-based practices with those who are in the trenches. Youth Care Workers (YCWs) are commonly referred to as resident counselors, youth counselors, psychiatric technicians, psych techs, caseworkers, case managers, and house parents or managers. YCWs are on the front lines, often providing services 24 hours a day. Thriving on the Front Lines is an up-to-date treatise on the pivotal role of YCWs and those who work day in and day out with youth to improve their well-being, relationships, and overall quality of life. Unique aspects of the strengths-based framework provided in Thriving on the Front Lines include: Strengths-based principles informed by five decades of research; Discussion of the importance of using real-time feedback to improve service outcomes and how to implement an outcome orientation; Exploration of Positive Youth Development. Two chapters devoted entirely to strengths-based interventions: An in-depth discussion of how to improve effectiveness through deliberate practice and How to develop a strengths-based organizational climate.

PROPEL to Quality Healthcare Thomas M. Muha, Martha Murphy, 2017-07-28 You got into healthcare because you wanted to help people, but quickly discovered providing high-quality care is challenging. Seemingly impossible demands are placed on you and your team. Some coworkers are constantly complaining; others are in their silos, doing only what they must to get through the long days. Collaboration is often lacking, and patients suffer the painful consequences. It's easy to become overloaded with work and overwhelmed with negativity. This is not how the healthcare profession has to be. There is a new science: Positive Psychology, that studies how people are able to perform extraordinarily well in challenging situations. After a dozen years of research in prestigious medical centers an evidence based method for applying this science has been developed That six step program is PROPEL You will read stories illustrating the experiences of doctors nurses and administrators who learned to use PROPEL to transform their professional life and for many their personal life as well You will learn how they were able to attain remarkable results with their teams units and clinics Staff callout and FMLA decreased 75% Wait times for chemotherapy infusion reduced 6 hours Staff turnover dropped 80% Pediatric MRI scheduling driven down from 14 weeks to 10 days Bone marrow transplant procedures increased by 50% ED diversion due to psychiatric patient boarding virtually eliminated Patient fall rate cut by 70% Use of agency and travelers nurses abolished Patient satisfaction scores up 50% The cumulative impact to the bottom line has been calculated to be millions of dollars The most meaningful measure of PROPEL s success however comes from the thousands of dedicated professionals who have expressed heartfelt gratitude for having learned how to recapture their joy for working in healthcare
