Sensitive to Listen and Willing to Obey Doris M. Arwine, 2014-05 God uses people daily to communicate His fragrance and message to us Too often we don t check to see what aroma or impression we are leaving for others to see hear or smell After visiting someone s home or before checking out of a motel or when moving we double check to make sure we haven't left anything behind Even criminals check to make sure they haven't left any clues at the crime scene to identify them A story reminded me of this A robber thought he had committed the perfect crime He assumed he left no clues behind But he didn't count on someone remembering how he smelled The smell he left behind was what helped convict him Yes we leave something everywhere we go Stuart Holden reminded a young man moving from a boarding house of this fact when the young man said he was just double checking to make sure he wasn't leaving anything behind There's one thing you will leave behind young man your influence A course of Sunday school lessons on the faith of the Church. (Church teaching for Sunday sch.). William Bouverie Trevelyan, 1899 Simple Object Lessons for Young Children Greg Squyres, 1992 The Question of God's Perfection Yoram Hazony, Dru Johnson, 2018-11-26 Philosophers have often described theism as the belief in the existence of a perfect being a being that is said to possess all possible perfections so that it is all powerful all knowing immutable perfectly good perfectly simple and necessarily existent among other qualities But such a theology is difficult to reconcile with the God we find in the Bible and Talmud The Question of God's Perfection brings together leading scholars from the Jewish and Christian traditions to critically examine the theology of perfect being in light of the Hebrew Bible and classical rabbinic sources Contributors are James A Diamond Lenn E Goodman Edward C Halper Yoram Hazony Dru Johnson Brian Leftow Berel Dov Lerner Alan L Mittleman Heather C Ohaneson Randy Ramal Eleonore Stump Alex Sztuden and Joshua I Weinstein Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner, 2007 Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner's work illuminates the theological aspects of communication Evangelical Repository, & Bible Teacher... , 1879 The Watchman , 1888
