Emerging Prophet
 Kyle A. Roberts,2013-04-23 Kierkegaard was a prophet who critiqued Christendom the perversion of authentic New Testament Christianity into the institutionalized materialistic triumphalist and flabby religion of modernism Emergent Christianity is attempting to carve out a more authentic way of being Christian and doing church within and beyond the ineffectual institutionalized church of modernity In many ways Kierkegaard s critiques concerns and goals overlap with emergent Christianity and the emerging church For the first time this book brings Kierkegaard into a dialogue with various postmodern forms of Christianity on topics like revelation and the Bible the atonement and moralism and the church as an apologetic of witness In conversation with postmodern philosophers contemporary theologians and emergent leaders Kierkegaard is offered as a prophetic voice for those who are carving out an alternative expression of the New Testament today and attempting to follow Christ through works of love Spiritual Exercises Reclaimed, 2nd Edition, The Liebert, Elizabeth,Paulin-Campbell, Annemarie,2022 This companion to the Spiritual Exercises in an anniversary edition does justice to women s experience across contexts and social locations While acknowledging obstacles that the Exercises hold for women in various contexts the authors provide fresh interpretations of every aspect of this spiritual classic They bring together feminist consciousness a broad knowledge of psychology and theology and the compassionate insight of experienced spiritual guides The situation of women making and giving the Spiritual Exercises has changed radically in the past two decades since the publication of the previous edition which highlights the variety women s experience of the Spiritual Exercises from different cultural contexts It also draws from new and younger women s voices thus extending the reach of the original text to another generation over wider geographic and cultural spread The revised book opens up new ways in which the Exercises may offer liberating possibilities for women world wide

Liberating the Economy from the Market
 Leonardo Lavanderos,Alejandro Malpartida,2025-04-24 Authors Leonardo Lavanderos and Alejandro Malpartida dismantle the ideological scaffolding of contemporary capitalism exposing its structural contradictions and radical disconnection from the conditions that sustain life This book is not merely a critique it deconstructs and reconfigures proposing an economy that transcends the reductionist mechanics of supply and demand in order to restore the essential link between culture and nature The authors discuss how conventional economics obsessed with abstract metrics and empty indicators erased the relational and ecological dimensions that underpin the viability of both human and non human communities The book is an intellectual rebuff to those who have turned the economy into a machine of entropy uprooting and devastation Drawing from the concept of ecopoiesis the authors call for a paradigmatic shift toward a regenerative relational and systemically sustainable economy An essential text for students and researchers in economics sustainability sociology and societal futures

The Writer's Mind Janice N. Hays,1983 Prepared by educators theoreticians and researchers the papers in this collection address the connections and interdependencies between writing and cognition The 24 papers deal with the following topics 1 rhetoric and romanticism 2 cognitive immaturity and remedial college writers 3 current brain research and the composing process 4 recovering and discovering treasures of the mind 5 understanding composing 6 written products and the composing process 7 modes of thinking and modes of argument 8 the relation of invention to arrangement 9 computing as a mode of inventing 10 invention and the writing sequence 11 writing as evidence of thinking 12 the writer's need to invent and express relationships 13 the development of discursive maturity 14 building thought on paper with adult basic writers 15 integrating instruction in reading writing and reasoning 16 writing and reading as collaborative or social acts 17 reuniting rhetoric 18 writing and thinking in a postliterate society 19 the intelligent eye and the thinking hand 20 interpreting and composing 21 reviewing reading and writing assignments 22 metaphor thinking and the composing process and 23 allegory and Jacques Lançan The concluding article reviews recent research dealing with writing and thinking FL Samuel Johnson Lawrence Lipking,2009-07-01 He was a servant to the public a writer for hire He was a hero an author adding to the glory of his nation But can a writer be both hack and hero The career of Samuel Johnson recounted here by Lawrence Lipking proves that the two can be one And it further proves in its enduring interest for readers that academic fashions today may be a bit hasty in pronouncing the death of the author A book about the life of an author about how an author is made not born Lipking's Samuel Johnson is the story of the man as he lived and lives in his work Tracing Johnson's rocky climb from anonymity to fame in the course of which he came to stand for both the greatness of English literature and the good sense of the common reader the book shows how this life transformed the very nature of authorship Beginning with the defiant letter to Chesterfield that made Johnson a celebrity Samuel Johnson offers fresh readings of all the writer's major works viewed through the lens of two ongoing preoccupations the urge to do great deeds and the sense that bold expectations are doomed to disappointment Johnson steers between the twin perils of ambition and despondency Mounting a challenge to the emerging industry that glorified and capitalized on Shakespeare he stresses instead the playwright's power to cure the illusions of everyday life All Johnson's works reveal his extraordinary sympathy with ordinary people In his groundbreaking Dictionary in his poems and essays and in The Lives of the English Poets we see Johnson becoming the key figure in the culture of literacy that reaches from his day to our own Rhetorics and Hermeneutics Stephen Byars Carroll,1996

Craving Supernatural Creatures Claudia Schwabe,2019-06-03 Analyzes the portrayal of German fairy tale figures in contemporary North American media adaptations Craving Supernatural Creatures German Fairy Tale Figures in American Pop Culture analyzes supernatural creatures in order to demonstrate how German fairy tales treat difference alterity and

Otherness with terror distance and negativity whereas contemporary North American popular culture adaptations navigate diversity by humanizing and redeeming such figures This trend of transformation reflects a greater tolerance of other marginalized groups in regard to race ethnicity ability age gender sexual orientation social class religion etc and acceptance of diversity in society today The fairy tale adaptations examined here are more than just twists on old stories they serve as the looking glasses of significant cultural trends customs and social challenges Whereas the fairy tale adaptations that Claudia Schwabe analyzes suggest that Otherness can and should be fully embraced they also highlight the gap that still exists between the representation and the reality of embracing diversity wholeheartedly in twenty first century America The book s four chapters are structured around different supernatural creatures beginning in chapter 1 with Schwabe s examination of the automaton the golem and the doppelganger which emerged as popular figures in Germany in the early nineteenth century and how media such as Edward Scissorhands and Sleepy Hollow dramatize humanize and infantilize these uncanny characters in multifaceted ways Chapter 2 foregrounds the popular figures of the evil queen and witch in contemporary retellings of the Grimms fairy tale Snow White Chapter 3 deconstructs the concept of the monstrous Other in fairy tales by scrutinizing the figure of the Big Bad Wolf in popular culture including Once Upon a Time and the Fables comic book series In chapter 4 Schwabe explores the fairy tale dwarf claiming that adaptations today emphasize the diversity of dwarves personalities and celebrate the potency of their physicality Craving Supernatural Creatures is a unique contribution to the field of fairy tale studies and is essential reading for students scholars and pop culture aficionados alike

Politics of Catastrophe Claudia Aradau, Rens Van Munster, 2011-05-02 This book argues that catastrophe is a particular way of governing future events such as terrorism climate change or pandemics which we cannot predict but which may strike suddenly without warning and cause irreversible damage At a time where catastrophe increasingly functions as a signifier of our future imaginaries of pending doom have fostered new modes of anticipatory knowledge and redeployed existing ones Although it shares many similarities with crises disasters risks and other disruptive incidents this book claims that catastrophes also bring out the very limits of knowledge and management The politics of catastrophe is turned towards an unknown future which must be imagined and inhabited in order to be made palpable knowable and actionable Politics of Catastrophe critically assesses the effects of these new practices of knowing and governing catastrophes to come and challenges the reader to think about the possibility of an

Imagining a better future is at the heart of development But mainstream development models are driven by a very narrow Western centric set of ideas about what it means to be human What could be possible if we let ourselves imagine differently As our world continues to evolve at breakneck speed and faces unprecedented crises from the decaying environment to cascading inequality the need for bold new directions for development has never been greater Peter Sutoris and Uma Pradhan put a spotlight on the thought provoking visions of leading theorists activists and practitioners for rethinking development as a political project towards more equitable futures Questioning top down economic frameworks they explore transformative ideas from degrowth to indigenous knowledge that may enable us to address the complexities of our rapidly changing global landscape They consider how the world can chart a path towards reconciling the moral case for eradicating poverty with these critical perspectives to advance a more ethical approach one that is sensitive to history diversity and the challenges and opportunities of this moment If development is to remain relevant today it must reinvent itself and finally listen to voices on the ground Reclaiming the Imagination Through Science Karyn L. Palla,2006 This thesis attempts to reclaim the imagination defined by Ann Berthoff as the name for the active mind by looking at brain biology as it relates to teaching and learning The section titled Keeping Biology in Mind The Brain as Speculative Instrument demonstrates how biological naturalism a philosophy developed by John Searle validates the concept of an ontologically subjective I and hence the creation of course materials based on David Kolb s experiential learning model In addition it discusses how biologist James Zull maps the actual structure of the brain onto Kolb s model Adding to this bottom up theory of learning that emphasizes brain biology and subjective experience this thesis discusses how the mind through mental force works in a top down fashion to change the brain and suggests that students can learn to take control of their own learning by applying mental force The section titled Keeping Affect in Mind The Biology of Intuition presents the aspect of affect known as intuition and how it fits into the discussion The main premise of this thesis is that we can employ concepts of the brain and learning in the composition classroom to facilitate the teaching and learning of writing The last section titled Keeping Composition in Mind Theory into Practice is devoted to this premise on a practical level
