To: Trevor Hart
66 Sutor Drive
Tallahassee, Florida 32319

Dear Mr. Hart,

I am writing this letter to confirm that I, Boris Campbell, the uncle of Alan Campbell, shall be financially responsible for his expenses for the period he will be spending in your country. This letter serves as my formal support for the aforementioned individual's visa application.

Alan shall be visiting your country for a family visit. I shall serve as the applicant's financial sponsor and will be covering all of the expenses for this trip.

All the required documents to support my given statements are attached to this letter. In case you have any queries, reach me out at +1 (222) 555-7777 or boriscampbell@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Boris Campbell

Nwanna,2004 Nwanna provides comprehensive information on travel to more than 170 countries and addresses diverse concerns regarding personal safety finances illness birth and marriage and more Development Fieldwork Regina Scheyvens,Donovan Storey,2003-08-06 Every now and then one stumbles across a breath of fresh air and this practical research guide is certainly one of them It will be no doubt refreshing for those of us who keep going to the field and who perhaps have forgotten the human dimension of research For those who supervise students the book will be a useful source of inspiration I shall certainly recommend the book to any of my students Development and Change Development Fieldwork is an excellent examination of and preparation for development research and will be an invaluable guide to all those entering or considering fieldwork wherever that may be Progress in Development Studies I would strongly recommend it as a field textbook across a range of disciplines and topics The tone is thoughtful engaging and pragmatic with all of the chapters contributing equally to a very high quality publication It is the best book I have read on fieldwork for a while It is essential for anyone contemplating development based study but it also contains a great deal of value and interest to geographers sociologists and other students working in and on the West Singapore Journal of Tropical Geography This is an outstanding book and one that all of us engaged in fieldwork in developing countries will want to read and doubtless re read Thoughtful relevant and consistently well written Professor Stuart Corbridge London School of Economics and University of Miami An excellent overview of the pitfalls and problems of fieldwork in remote places elegant and enjoyable incisive and elegant good

humoured and eminently practical the Lonely Planet guide to the field Professor John Connell Sydney University A very welcome and richly inviting review of the politics ethics and practicalities of fieldwork Development Fieldwork deserves reading in many fields This will surely travel far James D Sidaway National University of Singapore I warmly commend this guide to anyone planning or even thinking about fieldwork in the Third World Postgraduates and academics will find it particularly good as it not only raises an abundance of practical and logistical points but explores fundamental ethical and epistemological concerns to an unusual degree including issues not addressed elsewhere The clarity and attention to detail are also very welcome as is the ease with which the book can be navigated Janet Townsend University of Durham

Developmental Fieldwork provides a useful guide packed with information on practical and personal and sometimes political matters As with all good rough guides rather than fixing options and closing issues the authors make it a point to suggest flexible itineraries across the terrain of the field The book should in time become a well thumbed dog eared volume thrown into the haversack along with the notebook both sorts tape recorder mosquito repellent sunglasses and sturdy shoes Brenda S A Yeoh National University of Singapore A good introductory text that will assist the novice development researcher to prepare for a new experience and will also provide a timely reminder for more experienced researchers Evaluation Journal of Australasia Development Fieldwork provides an indispensable new resource and guide for all students undertaking development fieldwork in the Third World Accessible and lively the text introduces the basics of research design and methodology together with guidance on choosing the best research methods provides hands on advice practical personal and ethical to those preparing to enter the field covers the initial planning and preparation stages to end writing up and tips for the successful resumption of life back home The authors draw upon a rich and diverse set of fieldwork experiences across the developing world rural and urban and utilize case studies to illustrate the many common issues and challenges that will face both new and experienced fieldwork researchers It will be an essential text and companion to all postgraduate and research students across the social sciences

Your Guide to Get Into Medical School Aly Madhavji, Jiayi Hu, Manveen Puri, Sameer Masood, 2016-07-30 It is commonly known that the application process to medical school is competitive From our experience about 1% of students who express an interest in becoming a physician during their first year of undergraduate studies eventually matriculate into medical school While pursuing a career in medicine remains a dream for many and is considered the endpoint of a journey many different paths can lead towards that destination Given the significant time commitment required for a successful application the decision to pursue medicine is one of the biggest decisions many high school and undergraduate students face However many applicants do not look beyond gaining the coveted admission letter and are then left with an incomplete understanding of what medical school entails and the diverse career paths they can take after obtaining their MD One of the primary reasons for this is that despite significant progress made in recent years medicine remains a closed door career A large proportion of students in our medical class had at least one immediate relative within the profession which is also reflected in the literature The barriers created by such exclusivity make it difficult for those who have not been socialized into the profession from a young age to navigate the unspoken pitfalls of the admissions process This book attempts to break down some of those barriers It focuses on every component of the medical school application process It differs from the many other books written on this subject by taking an experiential approach We believe that the best way to learn about medical school acceptance is to garner advice from those who have recently achieved that milestone as well as from individuals in related professions who can provide valuable insights This guide is divided into ten chapters each of them covering an important step along a premed s journey While this book has a focus on North America we have written this guide with a global audience in mind as many of the concepts discussed are relevant to any medical school application process As such although the key components of the application process to medical school remain the same across various training systems not every chapter will be equally relevant to every reader Typically an application is composed of academic performance volunteer activities research projects medical college admission test performance and extracurricular activities We have combined the prescriptive style of most books of this type with detailed stories of how real people navigated their personal journeys to reach successful outcomes This guide shares a broad range of perspectives on what it takes and means to be a physician We are more convinced than ever that amongst applicants who have the academic credentials those who seek mentors and network early within the profession be it through family or friend circles and those who learn from their mistakes are accepted earlier This book will help you in that journey towards medical school acceptance and an exciting career in medicine Jiayi Hu MD Manveen Puri MD CCFP Sameer Masood MD Aly Madhavji CPA CA CMA CIM
