Comprehension Sample Questions:

In the sixteenth century, an age of great marine and terrestrial exploration, Ferdinand Magellan led the first expedition to sail around the world. As a young Portuguese noble, he served the king of Portugal, but he became involved in the quagmire of political intrigues at court and lost the king's favor. After he was dismissed from service to the king of Portugal, he offered to serve the future Emperor Charles V of Spain.

A papal decree of 1493 had assigned all land in the New World west of 30 degrees W longitude to Spain and all the land east of that line to Portugal. Magellan offered to prove that the East Indies fell under Spanish authority. On September 20, 1519, Magellan set sail from Spain with five ships. More than a year later, one of these ships was exploring the topography of South America in search of a water route across the continent. That ship sank, but the remaining four ships searched along the southern peninsula of South America. Finally they found the passage they sought near a latitude of 50 degrees S. Magellan named this passage the Strait of all Saints, but today we know it as the Strait of Magellan.

One ship deserted while in this passage and returned to Spain, so fewer sailors were privileged to gaze at that first panorama of the Pacific Ocean. Those who remained crossed the meridian we now call the International Date Line in the early spring of 1521 after ninety-eight days on the Pacific Ocean. During those long days at sea, many of Magellan's men died of starvation and disease. Later Magellan became involved in an insular conflict in the Philippines and was killed in a tribal battle.

Only one ship and seventeen sailors under the command of the Basque navigator Elcano survived to complete the westward journey to Spain and thus prove once and for all that the world is round, with no precipice at the edge.

1. Magellan lost the favor of the king of Portugal when he became involved in a political:
 - (a) entanglement
 - (b) discussion
 - (c) negotiation
 - (d) problem
 - (e) none of the above
2. Four of the ships sought passage along a southern:
 - (a) coast
 - (b) inland
 - (c) body of land with water on three sides
 - (d) border
 - (e) none of the above
3. The passage found near 50 degrees S was named the Strait of:
 - (a) Greenwich
 - (b) South America
 - (c) Spain
 - (d) Magellan
 - (e) Madrid
4. One of Magellan's ships explored the _____ of South America for a passage across the continent.
 - (a) coastline

 - (e) none of the above
5. The sixteenth century was an age of great _____ exploration.
