

IRAC: Jolly Trolley
Danielle A. Adams
Feb. 11, 2015

- Issue: Is Benjamin's employer, the Jolly Trolley Co., liable for Benjamin's injuries? Is the Jolly Trolley Co. liable for Benjamin's 4 months unpaid wages?
- Facts: Benjamin was a driver and tour guide with Jolly Trolley Co. His salary was $1200 a month. Benjamin took his friends on a tour during off-duty hours last July. During the tour, Benjamin lost control of the trolley, and it smashed into a building. The trolley was destroyed, and Benjamin was injured. Jolly Trolley fired him and then sued Benjamin for destruction of the trolley. Benjamin believes the trolley malfunctioned and wants to sue Jolly Trolley for his injuries as well as for his last four months' wages, which were not paid.
- Rule of Law: 1.) Code, § 114-102: In order for an injury to be compensable under the terms of the Workmen's Compensation Act, it must have been occasioned "by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment."
2.) OCGA § 34-9-17 is as follows: "Workmen's compensation shall not be allowed for an injury or death due to the employee's willful misconduct..."
- Analysis: In the instant case, Benjamin was in commission of a traffic violation when he destroyed property at the time of the accident and his injury a direct result therein. Benjamin was not performing duties pursuant to his employment at the time of the accident. In New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Summrell, an injury arises "in the course of employment," within the meaning of the Workmen's Compensation Act, when it occurs within the period of the employment, at a place where the employee reasonably may be in the performance of his duties, and while he is fulfilling those duties or engaged in doing something incidental thereto. An accident arises "out of" the employment, when it arises because of it, as when the employment is a contributing proximate cause. This and the condition stated above must concur before the act can apply. New Amsterdam Cas. Co. v. Summrell, 30 Ga. App. 682, 118 S.E. 786 (1923). In Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Horne, the court upheld a denial of benefits from the claimant because "in this kind of a case the burden is on the claimant to prove that the injury for which compensation is sought arose out of and in the course of the employment before compensation can be awarded legally to the claimant. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Horne, 71 Ga. App. 569, 31 S.E.2d 421, 422 (1944). Benjamin willfully violated
