- For statements p, q , and r , show that the following compound statements are tautology.
 - $(p \wedge (p \implies q)) \implies q$.

- Suppose that the statements P, Q, R , and S are assigned the truth values T, F, F , and T , respectively. Find the truth value of each of the following statements
 - $R \implies (S \wedge P)$
 - $P \implies (R \implies S)$.
 - $Q \wedge \neg S \implies (P \iff S)$.
 - $(R \wedge S) \implies (P \implies \neg Q \vee S)$
- If the value of $P \implies Q$ is F , then what is the truth value of $(\neg P \wedge Q) \iff (P \vee Q)$?
 - If the value of $P \iff Q$ is T , then what is the truth value of $P \iff \neg Q$ and $\neg P \iff Q$?

Blumczynski,2016-06-23 In this book Piotr Blumczynski explores the central role of translation as a key epistemological concept as well as a hermeneutic ethical linguistic and interpersonal practice His argument is three fold 1 that translation provides a basis for genuine exciting serious innovative and meaningful exchange between various areas of the humanities through both a concept the WHAT and a method the HOW 2 that in doing so it questions and challenges many of the traditional boundaries and offers a transdisciplinary epistemological paradigm leading to a new understanding of quality and thus also meaning truth and knowledge and 3 that translational phenomena are studied by a broad range of disciplines in the humanities including philosophy theology linguistics and anthropology using various often seemingly unrelated concepts which nevertheless display a considerable degree of qualitative proximity The common thread running through all these convictions and binding them together is the insistence that translational phenomena are ubiquitous Because of its unconventional and innovative approach this book will be of interest to translation studies scholars looking to situate their research within a broader transdisciplinary model as well as to students of translation programs and practicing translators who seek a fuller understanding of why and how translation matters Everything, Briefly Thomas O.
