Klasien Horstman,Bart Penders,Ewan Dow, The Application of Political Science Methods in Europe Luca

Verzichelli,Claudius Wagemann,2025-09-01 This book attempts to provide the first comprehensive description of the complexity and comparative homogeneity of political science methods in Europe today It deals with the present and future of political science methods in Europe in order to explore a multifaceted dilemma concerning not only the prospects for the profession but also political scientists ability to do their part in empowering supranational integration and democracy Thus the book offers a broad analytical reflection on the changing ways that political scientists use methods and methodological tools in their daily work It examines the evolution of processes regarding the standardization and dissemination of a reliable methodological inventory and invites readers to foster a methodological pluralism and improve the quality of methods available to the community of political science scholars In order to do so it analyzes the development of European Political Science since the turn of the 21st century from the particular angle of the sensibility for questions of methods In a nutshell the common denominator of all chapters is the evolution of the toolkit available to political scientists since they show that the methodological sensibility and specific methodological instruments have since spread across countries disciplines and generations of scholars Mapping Policy Preferences from Texts Andrea Volkens,Judith Bara,Ian Budge,Michael D.

McDonald,Hans-Dieter Klingemann,2013-11 The book is primarily concerned with ensuring the quality of the CMP MARPOR data and ways of assessing and using them Dustjacket Handbook of Research Methods and Applications in Political Science Hans Keman,Jaap J. Woldendorp,2016-12-30 This Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of state of the art research methods and applications currently in use in political science It combines theory and methodology qualitative and quantitative and offers insights into the major approaches and their roots in the philosophy of scientific knowledge Including a comprehensive discussion of the relevance of a host of digital data sources plus the dos and don ts of data collection in general the book also explains how to use diverse research tools and highlights when and how to apply these techniques

Research Methods for Political Science David E. McNabb,2020-12-30 The third edition of Research Methods for Political Science retains its effective approach to helping students learn what to research why to research and how to research The text integrates both quantitative and qualitative approaches to research in one volume and covers such important topics as research design specifying research problems designing questionnaires and writing questions designing and carrying out qualitative research and analyzing both quantitative and qualitative research data Heavily illustrated classroom tested exceptionally readable and engaging the text presents statistical methods in a conversational tone to help students surmount math phobia Updates to this new edition include Research topics chapters have been upgraded and expanded Two mixed methods design chapters have been added A new chapter on hermeneutic analysis designs and research with large data sets The chapter on multivariate statistics has been expanded with an expanded discussion on logistic regression Tools on how to prepare and present research findings are now featured in the appendix allowing instructors more flexibility when teaching their courses Research Methods for Political Science will give students the confidence and knowledge they need to understand the methods and basics skills for data collection presentation and analysis Political Science in Europe Thibaud Boncourt,Isabelle Engeli,Diego Garzia,2020-05-28 The last half century has been a defining period for the development of political science in Europe disciplinary norms have become institutionalized in professional organizations training units and research centres the scholarly community has dramatically grown in size across the continent the analytical and methodological tools of the discipline are increasingly sophisticated and the knowledge disseminated under the label political science is bigger than it has ever been Political Science in Europe takes stock of these developments and reflects on the achievements of the discipline and the challenges it faces Is there a distinctive European blend of political science Is the European political science community cohesive and inclusive How does the discipline cope with the neoliberalisation of academia and the diffusion of illiberal politics Leading and up and coming political scientists answer these questions by discussing the discipline s key concepts and intellectual trends its professional structures and its relationship with its social economic and political environment The Oxford Handbook of Electoral Persuasion Elizabeth Suhay,Bernard Grofman,Alexander H. Trechsel,2020-04-01 Elections are the means by which democratic nations determine their leaders and communication in the context of elections has the potential to shape people's beliefs, attitudes and actions. Thus, electoral persuasion is one of the most important political processes in any nation that regularly holds elections. Moreover, electoral persuasion encompasses not only what happens in an election but also what happens before and after, involving candidates, parties, interest groups, the media, and the voters themselves. This volume surveys the vast political science literature on this subject, emphasizing contemporary research and topics and encouraging cross-fertilization among research strands. A global roster of authors provides a broad examination of electoral persuasion with international perspectives complementing deep coverage of U.S. politics. Major areas of coverage include general models of political persuasion, persuasion by parties, candidates, and outside groups, media influence, interpersonal influence, electoral persuasion across contexts, and empirical methodologies for understanding electoral persuasion.
