Dementia and Literature Tess Maginess, 2017-08-09 Dementia is an urgent global concern often termed a widespread problem tragedy or burden and a subject best addressed by health and social policy and practice However creative writers can offer powerful and imaginative insights into the experience of dementia across cultures and over time This cross disciplinary volume explores how engaging with dementia through its myriad literary representations can help to deepen and humanise attitudes to people living with the condition Offering and interrogating a wide array of perspectives about how dementia might be imagined this book allows us to see how different ways of being can inflect one another By drawing on the lived experience of the individual unique person and their loved ones literature can contribute to a deeper and more compassionate and more liberating attitude to a phenomenon that is both natural and unnatural Novels plays and stories reveal a rich panoply of responses ranging from the tragic to the comic allowing us to understand that people with dementia often offer us models of humour courage and resilience and carers can also embody a range of responses from rigidity to compassion Dementia and Literature problematises the subject of dementia encouraging us all to question our own hegemonies critically and creatively Drawing on literary studies cultural studies education clinical psychology psychiatry nursing and gerontology this book is a fascinating contribution to the emerging area of the medical and health humanities The book will be of interest to those living with dementia and their caregivers as well as to the academic community and policy makers

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives

Contemporary Narratives of Ageing, Illness, Care Katsura Sako, Sarah Falcus, 2021-12-24 This collection of essays explores cultural narratives of care in the contexts of ageing and illness It includes both text based and practice based contributions by leading and emerging scholars in humanistic studies of ageing The authors consider care not only in film feature and documentary and literature novel short story children s picturebook but also in the fields of theatre performance photography and music The collection has a broad geographical scope with case studies and primary texts from Europe and North America but also from Hong Kong Japan Australia Argentina and Mexico The volume asks what care autonomy and dependence may mean and how these may be inflected by social and cultural specificities Ultimately it invites us to reflect on our relations to others as we face the global and local challenges of care in ageing societies Reconsidering Dementia Narratives Rebecca Bitenc,2019-07-05

Reconsidering Dementia Narratives explores the role of narrative in developing new ways of understanding interacting with and caring for people with dementia It asks how the stories we tell about dementia in fiction life writing and film both reflect and shape the way we think about this important condition Highlighting the need to attend to embodied and relational aspects of identity in dementia the study further outlines ways in which narratives may contribute to dementia care while disputing the idea that the modes of empathy fostered by narrative necessarily bring about more humane care practices This cross medial analysis represents an interdisciplinary approach to dementia narratives which range across auto biography graphic narrative novel film documentary and collaborative storytelling practices The book aims to clarify the limits and affordances of narrative and narrative studies in relation to an ethically driven medical humanities agenda through the use of case studies Answering the key question of whether dementia narratives align with or run counter to the dominant discourse of dementia as loss of self this innovative book will be of interest to anyone interested in dementia studies ageing studies narrative studies in health care and critical medical humanities Planning Later Life Mark Schweda,Larissa Pfaller,Kai Brauer,Frank Adloff,Silke Schicktanz,2017-07-06 This book examines the relevance of modern medicine and healthcare in shaping the lives of elderly persons and the practices and institutions of ageing societies Combining individual and social dimensions Planning Later Life discusses the ethical social and political consequences of increasing life expectancies and demographic change in the context of biomedicine and public health By focusing on the field of biomedicine and healthcare the authors engage readers in a dialogue on the ethical and social implications of recent trends in dementia research and care advance healthcare planning or the rise of anti ageing medicine and prevention Bringing together the largely separated debates of individualist bioethics on the one hand and public health ethics on the other the volume deliberately considers the entanglements of envisioning evaluating and controlling individual and societal futures So far the process of devising and exploring the various positive and negative visions and strategies related to later life has rarely been reflected systematically from a philosophical sociological and ethical point of view As such this book will be crucial to those working and studying in the life sciences the humanities and the social sciences particularly in the areas of bioethics social work gerontology and ageing studies healthcare and social service sociology social policy and geography and population studies Ageing, Dementia and the Social Mind Paul Higgs,Chris Gilleard,2017-09-05 A groundbreaking exploration of the sociology of dementia with contributions from distinguished international scholars and practitioners Organised around the four themes of personhood care social representations and social differentiation Provides a critical look at dementia and demonstrates how sociology and other disciplines can help us understand its social context as well as the challenges it poses Contributing authors explore the social terrain responding in part to Paul Higgs and Chris Gilleard s highly influential work on ageing Breaks new ground in giving specific attention to the social and cultural dimensions of responses to dementia The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and Aging Valerie Barnes Lipscomb,Aagje Swinnen,2024-04-16 This handbook offers a comprehensive survey of the growing field of literary age studies and points to new directions in scholarly research Divided into four sections the volume reflects the current conversations in the field intersections and intersectionalities traveling concepts methodological innovations and archival inquiries It encompasses the spectrum of critical approaches that literary age studies scholars employ from environmental studies and postcolonial theory to critical race theory and queer studies While close reading continues to be a mainstay of literary criticism the handbook highlights alternative tools and routes in both data elicitation and analysis The final part of the book shows the burgeoning interest in the field from literary scholars across historical periods extending the scope of literary age studies beyond contemporary texts This is an essential reference work for advanced students and scholars of literary studies gerontology age aging studies interdisciplinary studies and cultural studies

Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ,2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia

Masculinities Ageing between Cultures Heike Hartung,Roberta Maierhofer,Christian Schmitt-Kilb,2024-04-02 Global mobility is one of the crucial phenomena of our time Combining the theoretical frameworks of masculinity studies and age studies the contributors to this volume examine the intersection of cultural exchange gender and age exploring ageing masculinities with reference to the key concepts of relationality kinship and care The essays analyze transcultural experiences of ageing men from Europe relationships including the Indian diaspora in the US Chinese father images in the US American context and

Black British queer kinship drawing its examples also from Brazilian society and African European contexts

Post-War Public Housing and Well-Being Izumi Kuroishi, 2025-07-31 This collection illustrates the evolving role of housing as a symbol of modernity a tool for economic recovery and a response to societal transitions It argues that understanding earlier efforts to integrate well being in the twentieth century can provide valuable insights for contemporary actors in the built environment who are working to address these issues today As such it explores and shines light on this lesser known history drawing on case studies it focuses on the intersection of public housing well being and social change in the aftermath of the Second World War With case studies from the UK US Singapore Japan Germany China and Spain this volume provides insights into how these countries have shaped the values designs and institutions of their dwellings By incorporating diverse cultural contexts it contributes to a nuanced understanding of housing dynamics and well being Through a multidisciplinary lens this volume encourages a re evaluation of living conditions and fundamental values emphasising the dynamic interplay between humans their social environment and diverse living environments This book is essential for scholars researchers professionals students policymakers and practitioners in cultural history architecture planning urban studies sociology education and public policy

Cultural Histories of Ageing Margery Vibe Skagen, 2021-05-12 Drawing on sixteenth to twenty first century American British French German Polish Norwegian and Russian literature and philosophy this collection teases out culturally specific conceptions of old age as well as subjective constructions of late life identity and selfhood The internationally known humanistic gerontologist Jan Baars the prominent historian of old age David Troyansky and the distinguished cultural historian and pioneer in the field of literature and science George Rousseau join a team of literary historians who trace out the interfaces between their chosen texts and the respective periods medical and gerontological knowledge The chapters in depth analyses of major and less known works demonstrate the rich potential of fiction poetry and autobiographical writing in the construction of a cultural history of senescence These literary examples not only bear witness to longue dur e representations of old age and epochal transitions regarding cultural attitudes to the aged they also foreground the subjectivities that produced some of these representations and that continue to communicate with readers of other times and places By casting a net over a variety of authors genres periods and languages the collection gives a broad sense of how literature is among the richest and most engaging sources for historicizing the ageing self

A Poetic Language of Ageing Olga V. Lehmann, Oddgeir Synnes, 2023-05-18 Exploring the potential of poetry and poetic language as a means of conveying perspectives on later life this book examines questions such as how can we understand ageing and later life and how can we capture the ambiguities and complexities that the experiences of growing old in time and place entail As poetic language illuminates transfigures and enchants our being in the world it also offers insights into the existential questions that are amplified as we age including the vulnerabilities and losses that humble us and connect us This volume suggests a path towards the poetics of ageing by means of presenting analyses of published poetry on ageing ranging from William Shakespeare to George Oppen the use of reading and writing poetry among lay people in old age including persons living with dementia and the poetic nuances that emerge from other literary practices and contexts in relation to ageing counting personal poetic reflections from many of the contributing authors Cultural Perspectives on Aging Andrea Hülsen-Esch, 2021-11-22 Current demographic developments and change due to long life expectancies low birth rates changing family structures and economic and political crises causing migration and flight are having a significant impact on intergenerational relationships the social welfare system the job market and what elderly people can expect from their retirement and environment The socio political relevance of the categories of age and ageing have been increasing and gaining much attention within different scholarly fields However none of the efforts to identify age related diseases or the processes of ageing in order to develop suitable strategies for prevention and therapy have had any effect on the fact that attitudes against the elderly are based on patterns that are determined by parameters that or not biological or sociological age ing is also a cultural fact This book reveals the importance of cultural factors in order to build a framework for analyzing and understanding cultural constructions of ageing bringing together scholarly discourses from the arts and humanities as well as social medical and psychological fields of study The contributions pave the way for new strategies of caring for elderly people Literature and Medicine Anna M. Elsner, Monika Pietrzak-Franger, 2024-01-18 The experiences of health and illness death and dying the normal and the pathological have always been an integral part of literary texts This volume considers how the two dynamic fields of medicine and literature have crossed over and how they have developed alongside one another It asks how medicine as both science and practice shapes the representation of illness and transforms literary form It considers how literary texts across genres and languages of disease have put forward specific conceptions of medicine and impacted its practice Taking into account the global multilingual and multicultural contexts this volume systematically outlines and addresses this double sidedness of the literature medicine connection Literature and Medicine covers a broad spectrum of conceptual thematic theoretical and methodological approaches that provide a solid foundation for understanding a vibrant interdisciplinary field
