Re: Starting skip level 1 on 1s with your team

Hi Jennifer,

I wanted to let you know I'm starting something new. Occasionally, I will do skip-level 1 on 1 meetings with your team members to get a pulse on strategy, build relationships, and understand your team members' perspectives.

From these conversations, you may hear new feedback or questions from your team members. That's healthy and to be expected. I'll also share any patterns or common feedback I hear that's relevant to you.

Most importantly, these meetings are to help everyone in our organization work more effectively. I am not going behind your back to second-guess your work nor undermine your leadership.

Let's plan to discuss this more in our next 1 on 1 together.

Thanks

Jason

Running Group Visits in Your Practice Edward B. Noffsinger,2009-07-21 A Fateful Meeting A year and a half ago I was sitting at a conference listening to Ed Noffsinger speak and suddenly had the most profound Aha moment of my professional career Here was someone presenting a practical and tested solution to some of the most challenging problems currently plaguing the US healthcare system problems such as poor access to primary and specialty care the uncontrollable and rising costs of healthcare our nation's relatively poor quality outcomes and finally the sense of frustration disempowerment loneliness and disenfranchisement that patients and their families too often experience Dr Noffsinger's solution seemed deceptively simple shared medical appointments SMAs that afford the highest quality healthcare to be delivered in the highest quality care experience a group setting Experience collected over a decade and involving more than 100 000 patient visits throughout the United States Canada and parts of Europe has demonstrated that SMAs when used in primary care as well as in the medical and surgical subspecialties lead to increased access to care enhanced quality of care and improved patient satisfaction For physicians the efficiency gains and team support from their participation in SMAs translate into much needed relief and improved career satisfaction No More Bananas Jeroen Kraaijenbrink, 2019-06-21

Feel better get done more and become a nicer person In this age of social media fake news individualism and information overload the certainties we relied on in the past are gone In our quest for assurance and support the only seemingly dependable pillar left is other people So we look to them But they are unsettled too And by looking to them we create and perpetuate our own vicious stress cycle As a result we lose our sensible selves And we go bananas But there is good news If we look around us there are people who withstand the collective lunacy and stay grounded They do something that most of us have a hard time doing they stay themselves And the best news is that what they can do you can do too It doesn't require any special talents or supernatural powers It only requires doing In this amiable open and accessible book Jeroen Kraaijenbrink takes you on his personal journey out of Bananaland Drawing from cognitive psychology martial arts Saint Benedict personal experience and a wide range of other sources the book offers a nine step approach with some remarkably practical advice for keeping a cool head in the collective lunacy Free yourself from the collective lunacy and reclaim your calm and sensible self Los Angeles Magazine , 2003-11
