Re: Character reference letter for immigration of [Applicant's full name]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this immigration letter of support for [Applicant's full name], a good friend of mine who has recently applied to our great nation.

My name is [Add Sender's full name], and I have known him for [____] years. After spending time with him, I found that he was a great man with a remarkable personality and strong character that earned my high respect. Therefore, he has a professional attitude with a significant work ethic, responsibility, and kindness, and he will become a great value to our society. As a friend who has known him in his professional and personal life, I can attest that he will be a great citizen and contributor to this country.

I am delighted to inform you that [Applicant's full name] is honest, reliable, and moral in the presence of his superiors and everyone else. It is my great honor to recommend him as a citizen of our country, and I am privileged to be his friend. As far as I know, he has been waiting patiently for his application to go through and I hope that he can be able to eventually go forward in his life by moving to our country in the near future.

If you have further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me via phone at [Sender's phone no] or email at [Sender's email]. I am happy to answer all your concerns in this regard.

Many thanks for your time.
Sincerely,

[Sender's full name]

House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: Asylum - HC 71 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2013-10-11 The asylum system is overburdened and under severe pressure The backlog of asylum cases that should have been cleared by 2011 has reached 32 600 with some people waiting up to 16 years for a decision Thousands appear to be living in a sub standard level of housing as part of the COMPASS contract supplied by the private contractors G4S Serco and Clearel These companies must be held accountable The quality of decision making is also of great concern as 30% of appeals against initial decisions were allowed in 2012 The impact of decisions are grave if asylum is not granted when it should be then the UK is failing to protect a vulnerable person If asylum is granted when it is not deserved then the UK may well end up harbouring war criminals and terrorists Those who apply for asylum should be checked against national and international law enforcement agency and security databases to ensure that we are not harbouring those who intend us harm The Home Secretary has to give assurance that any anomalies in the process which have allowed decisions such as this to take place are addressed immediately The are also oncerns about the level of support available to those who seek asylum in the UK The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 section 4 which provides a reduced support system for asylum seekers who had had their claim refused but were unable to return to their country of origin through reasons that were no fault of theirs is not a solution
