PRACTICUM WEEK : 1

DATE: 1ST FEBRUARY 2015 – 5TH FEBRUARY 2015

TITLE: FIRST WEEK IN SCHOOL, TIME MANAGEMENT and THE TEACHING OF
'DUNIA SAINS dan TEKNOLOGI'

1. PROBLEM

Alhamdulillah, my first week of practicum in SK _____ had been quite a different experience compared to my previous schools. The environment in urban school such as in my new school, SK _____ was completely different from my previous experience in rural schools. The school headmaster and staffs however had been very helpful and welcoming during our first day and throughout the whole week. We had been introduced properly to the pupils during our first morning assembly and it had helped me and my friend a lot in interacting with the school community afterwards.

As for the lesson I conducted in my classroom, I was still unable to properly conduct my lesson within the time limit as allocated in the lesson plan. Given that I was still not used to the level of the pupils in my classroom, I tend to sometimes underestimate or overestimate the ability of my pupils which affect the kind of activity I gave them in the classroom. More often than not, each activity exceeds the time limit that I have set especially during practice stage. Aside from that, I also encountered problem in trying to figure out the proper way to teach science concept and scientific skills to my pupils. Since this was also my first time in teaching my pupils the 'Dunia Sains dan Teknologi' subject, I was overwhelmed by the differences in the teaching of DST and English especially in terms of approach and lesson planning. It was completely different and given my lack of knowledge and experience in the subject, I was worried that I might even mislead my pupils during the lesson.

Journal Writing in Second Language Education Christine Pearson Casanave, 2011-02-04 Journal writing is not new journals have been around for centuries More recently journals have been viewed as a means of scaffolding reflective teaching and encouraging reflectivity in research processes As a result some educators may ask What more do we need to know Those likely to raise this question are probably not thinking of the explosive growth of reflective writing enabled by social networking on the Web the blogs and other interactive e vehicles for reflection on experiences in our literate real and virtual lives This revisiting of journal writing from a 21st century perspective informed by relevant earlier literature is what Christine Pearson Casanave guides readers through in this first book length treatment of the use of journal writing in the contexts of language learning pre and in service teaching and research Casanave has put together existing ideas that haven t been put together before and has done it not as an edited collection but as a single authored book She has done it in a way that will be especially accessible to teachers in language teacher education programs and to practicing teachers and researchers of writing in both second and foreign language settings and in a way that will inspire all of us to think about not just do journal writing Those who have never attempted to use journals in their classes and own lives as well as others who have used it with mixed results will probably be tempted to try it in at least some of the venues Casanave provides guidance for Those already committed to journal writing will very likely find in this book new reasons for expanding and enhancing their use of journals

A Guide to Practicum and Internship for School Counselors-in-Training Joel F. Diambra,2011-01-19 School counseling is a rather specialized field yet students entering it do not have a single comprehensive resource to guide them through the process This text covers all aspects of the practicum and internship experience from the initial contact with your supervisor to detailed descriptions of each of the different roles you will have and will help you gain an understanding of the school culture and how to begin thinking about and developing your own philosophy of school counseling Specific topics covered include popular counseling theories used by school counselors working with special populations of students application of the ASCA ethical standards the administration of day to day tasks such as arranging an office space and managing your time and elements of the guidance curriculum including individual student planning responsive services and systemic support Each chapter contains activities case studies hypothetical situations and worksheets designed to facilitate your understanding of and role in the profession All material presented is consistent with both the CACREP accreditation standards and the American School Counseling Association s National Model Project Planning and Management James Leonard Harris,2011 Project Planning and Management A Guide for CNLs DNP s and Nurse Executives provides a step by step approach to developing implementing and evaluating a project plan This book serves as a guide to refining the idea or question reviewing relevant evidence to support a best practice intervention and outlining process dynamics outcomes management and evaluation strategies Features throughout the text include chapter objectives key terms summaries evidence based examples boxed articles case studies review questions as well as power point presentations and exam questions This is the perfect resource for capstone courses and field studies as well as an ideal reference for professionals

Professionalism in Health Care Sherry Makely,2009 Professionalism in Healthcare 3 e addresses the special skills and attitudes that a worker must possess to be recognized as a health care professional This text stresses the idea that professional recognition isn t automatically bestowed upon a person when he or she completes an educational program obtains a degree or certificate or secures a license to practice Recognition as a healthcare professional has to be earned and maintained each and every day Professionalism is a state of mind a way of being knowing and doing that distinguishes exceptional workers from the ordinary Enhancing professionalism has become a major challenge for healthcare educators employers and personnel This text helps meet that challenge by describing the professional standards that apply to all health care workers the common ground that everyone shares in providing the quality care and service excellence that today s patients deserve and demand Journal of Botany Berthold Seemann,1885 Constructivist Teacher Education Virginia Richardson,2005-08-15 bringing together issues of theory research and practice in constructivist teacher education this book raises the questions and offers answers as to how does one persuade students and teachers to change their fundamental beliefs and practices about teaching and learning Re/Structuring Science Education Wolff-Michael Roth,2009-12-24 Since its beginnings science education has been under the influence of psychological theories of knowing and learning while in more recent years social constructivist and sociological frameworks have also begun to emerge With little work being done on showing how the perspectives of these separate approaches might be integrated this work aims to plug the gap The book helps lay the groundwork for reuniting sociological and psychological perspectives on the knowing learning and teaching of science Featuring a range of integrative efforts beginning with simple conversation the chapters here include not only articles but also commentaries that engage with other papers as well as a useful running narrative that from the introduction to the epilogue contextualizes the book and its sections Specific attention is given to cultural historical activity theory which already offers an integration of psychological and cultural historical sociological perspectives on collectively motivated human activities A number of chapters as well as the contextualizing narrative explicitly use this theory as a framework for rethinking science education to achieve the reunification that is the goal of this work All the contributors to this volume have produced texts that contribute to the effort of overcoming the extant divide between sociological and psychological approaches to science education research and practice From very different positions gender culture race they provide valuable insights to reuniting approaches in both theory and method in the field As an ensemble the contributions constitute a rich menu of ideas from which new forms of science education can emerge Journal of Botany, British and Foreign ,1885 Chicago Schools Journal ,1918 Handbook of Counselor Preparation Garrett McAuliffe,Karen Eriksen,2011

This definitive single volume guide is the first of its kind on teaching and developing counselor educator programs that embrace constructivist and developmental theory. Leading scholars and experts offer practical advice on teaching courses in every area of counseling practice. As a result, the book is ideal for current and future counselor educators and supervisors as well as faculty in other helping professions. The authors seek to inspire educators to empower and involve, to risk losing control over subject matter, to hear student voices, to pose dilemmas, and to challenge their own assumptions in the presence of their students using constructivist, developmental, and experiential thinking and strategies.
