When something starts to go in the other direction, we're disappointed. We hope that by now, as a society, we're beginning to see that the history curriculum is not confined to facts and figures and that we're beginning to see that the history curriculum is not confined to facts and figures.

This book, along with other publications on mathematics, guides a wide variety of users, from high-school students up to, for example, teachers, in preparing the great number of teachers that Poland's education system will need by the year 2000. It is intended to be distributed and used in the physical mathematics laboratory, physics, and chemistry departments, as well as in the mathematics department, in secondary and technical schools, and in universities and colleges, being used as a handbook and source of information on a wide range of mathematical subjects. It is published by the Polish Academy of Sciences.
