The Third Way Cyrille J.C.F. Fijnaut, Brice de Ruyver, 2015-07-28 What is sensible when it comes to developing and implementing a policy with regard to products which in the case of regular use are harmful but which at the same time exert a strong attraction even so strong that people may become dependent on or addicted to them This question relates to many illicit drugs but these days it is both nationally and internationally mainly related to the policy regarding the production distribution and consumption of cannabis Generally speaking the legalization of cannabis in Uruguay and in some states of the United States of America in particular Colorado and Washington State has given a powerful impetus to the discussion about the cannabis policy In the Netherlands that discussion has become increasingly relevant over the past years because of the struggle of coffeeshop owners and political parties This volume offers the first English language analysis of the situation in the Netherlands in order to make a contribution to the international debate on this heated topic Since the 1960s the Dutch cannabis policy has been an important point of reference in the international discussion about the policy that should be pursued regarding the use of cannabis However in international and foreign literature about cannabis policy the developments in the Netherlands are often depicted in an incomplete or one sided manner which has a negative impact on the quality of the international debate about what has happened and what should happen now This volume seeks to redress that imbalance

Adventism was born as a radical millenarian sect in nineteenth century America It has since spread across the world achieving far more success in Latin America Africa and Asia than in its native land In what seems a paradox Adventist expectation of Christ s imminent return has led the denomination to develop extensive educational publishing and health systems Increasingly established within a variety of societies Adventism over time has modified its views on many issues and accommodated itself to the delay of the Second Advent In the process it has become a multicultural religion that nonetheless reflects the dominant influence of its American origins This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Seventh Day Adventists covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on key people cinema politics and government sports and critics of Ellen White This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Seventh day Adventism Who Matters at the World Bank? Kim Moloney, 2022-06-23 Who Matters at the World Bank explores who matters in a 32 year history 1980 2012 of policy change within the World Bank s public sector management and public sector governance agenda and is anchored within the public administration discipline and its understanding of bureaucracy bureaucratic politics and stakeholder influences In response to constructivist scholars concerns about politics and the organizational culture of international civil servants within international organizations Kim Moloney uses stakeholder theory and a bureaucratic politics approach to suggest the normality of politics policy debate and policy evolution The book also highlights how for 21 of those 32 years it was not external stakeholders but the international civil servants of the World Bank who most influenced led developed and institutionalized this sector's agenda. In so doing the book explains how one sector of the Bank's work rose against the odds from being included in just under 3% of approved projects in 1980 to 73% of all projects approved between 1991 and 2012.

Social Partnerships and Responsible Business M. May Seitanidi, Andrew Crane, 2013-12-04 Cross sector partnerships are widely hailed as a critical means for addressing a wide array of social challenges such as climate change poverty education corruption and health. Amid all the positive rhetoric of cross sector partnerships though critical voices point to the limited success of various initiatives in delivering genuine social change and in providing for real citizen participation. This collection critically examines the motivations for processes within and expected and actual outcomes of cross sector partnerships. In opening up new theoretical methodological and practical perspectives on cross sector social interactions this book reimagines partnerships in order to explore the potential to contribute to the social good. A multi disciplinary perspective on partnerships adds serious value to the debate in a range of fields including management politics public management sociology development studies and international relations. Contributors to the volume reflect many of these diverse perspectives enabling the book to provide an account of partnerships that is theoretically rich and methodologically varied. With critical contributions from leading academics such as Barbara Gray Ans Kolk John Selsky and Sandra Waddock this book is a comprehensive resource which will increase understanding of this vital issue.
