

Laboratory Activity 42 — Student Laboratory Packet Making Connections A Laboratory Activity for the Living Environment

Measuring Connections

In this online laboratory, students are given feedback for answers to the online test. But students themselves have selected their progress reports to be shared. As they feel a stronger confidence of their understanding, they will need more support. In the high school laboratory, students will be developing their ability to make positive personal connections to a study of the science that has led to the development of people and their ability.

Following and explaining connections to new or other study materials by a student's knowledge of the world around them is a key concept in all science. Therefore, the connections are very often the subject of investigation. And connections are also made to the world around them. Connections are made to the world around them.

In this part of the laboratory, students will be asked to make connections about growth and your experiences. They will be asked to make the connections between them.

Study
