Adventure Capitalism Raymond Craib, 2022-07-05 Imagine a capitalist paradise An island utopia governed solely by the rules of the market and inspired by the fictions of Ayn Rand and Robinson Crusoe Sound far fetched It may not be The past half century is littered with the remains of such experiments in what Raymond Craib calls libertarian exit Often dismissed as little more than the dreams of crazy rich Caucasians exit strategies have been tried out from the southwest Pacific to the Caribbean from the North Sea to the high seas often with dire consequences for local inhabitants Based on research in archives in the US the UK and Vanuatu as well as in FBI files acquired through the Freedom of Information Act Craib explores in careful detail the ideology and practice of libertarian exit and its place in the histories of contemporary capitalism decolonization empire and oceans and islands Adventure Capitalism is a global history that intersects with an array of figures Fidel Castro and the Koch brothers American segregationists and Melanesian socialists Honolulu based real estate speculators and British Special Branch spies soldiers of fortune and English lords Orange County engineers and Tongan navigators CIA operatives and CBS news executives and a new breed of techno utopians and an old guard of Honduran coup leaders This is not only a history of our time but given the new iterations of privatized exit seasteads free private cities and space colonization it is also a history of our future

Knocking on the Door Christopher Bonastia,2010-11-16 Knocking on the Door is the first book length work to analyze federal involvement in residential segregation from Reconstruction to the present Providing a particularly detailed analysis of the period 1968 to 1973 the book examines how the U S Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD attempted to forge elementary changes in segregated residential patterns by opening up the suburbs to groups historically excluded for racial or economic reasons The door did not shut completely on this possibility until President Richard Nixon took the drastic step of freezing all federal housing funds in January 1973 Knocking on the Door assesses this near miss in political history exploring how HUD came surprisingly close to implementing rigorous antidiscrimination policies and why the agency s efforts were derailed by Nixon Christopher Bonastia shows how the Nixon years were ripe for federal action to foster residential desegregation The period was marked by new legislative protections against housing discrimination unprecedented federal involvement in housing construction and frequent judicial backing for the actions of civil rights agencies By comparing housing desegregation policies to civil rights enforcement in employment and education Bonastia offers an unrivaled account of why civil rights policies diverge so sharply in their ambition and effectiveness
