Internal Investigations for Law Enforcement Rainer Kroll, 2022-12-13. This concise volume provides a methodology for conducting investigations into allegations against law enforcement officers. It takes into account the history of police culture, misconduct, and internal affairs investigations. Identifying three types of cases: administrative and rules violations, misconduct allegations, and crimes and corruption, this brief provides steps for the initial investigation, evidence retrieval, review of the investigation, and further considerations. Appropriate for students of criminal justice and law enforcement officers and researchers, this unique volume is a practical overview of common issues in and approaches to police misconduct. Provides a concise methodology for conducting investigations into law enforcement, outlining steps to take after receiving an allegation against an officer. Discusses various types of allegations and the appropriate actions for pursuing each investigation. Examines the theory and history behind police culture and deviance and behind internal affairs investigations.

Evaluation of the New York City Police Department Firearm Training and Firearm-discharge Review Process Bernard Rostker, 2008. In January 2007, New York City Police Commissioner Raymond W. Kelly asked the RAND Corporation to examine the quality and completeness of the New York City Police Department's firearm training program and identify potential improvements in it and in the police department's firearm discharge review process. This monograph reports the observations, findings, and recommendations of that study.
