Barbarism and Its Discontents Maria Boletsi,2013-01-30

Barbarism and civilization form one of the oldest and most rigid oppositions in Western history According to this dichotomy barbarism functions as the negative standard through which civilization fosters its self definition and superiority by labeling others barbarians Since the 1990s and especially since 9 11 these terms have become increasingly popular in Western political and cultural rhetoric a rhetoric that divides the world into forces of good and evil This study intervenes in this recent trend and interrogates contemporary and historical uses of barbarism arguing that barbarism also has a disruptive insurgent potential Boletsi recasts barbarism as a productive concept finding that it is a common thread in works of literature art and theory By dislodging barbarism from its conventional contexts this book reclaims barbarism s edge and proposes it as a useful theoretical tool
