Literature and Film Nancy Enright,2016-11-21 Catholic Literature and Film Incarnational Love and Suffering is meant to be considered as a work of literary criticism not film adaptation studies In it the author explores six literary works dealing with Catholic themes and the film versions of these works The discussion of the films is at the service of analyzing the texts Underlying all the discussions is an incarnational sacramental view of the texts which links to my interpretation of the film versions of them Catholic and actually any Christian interpretation of literature or film or any other art form is rooted in an iconic and sacramental understanding of imagery as a means of conveying the sacred Catholic spirituality lends itself to this sort of approach as it is deeply rooted in the ability to see sacred things through physical means A key sub theme is romantic love in connection with salvation which Charles Williams one of the Inklings the group of British writers including J R R Tolkien and C S Lewis who met and discussed literature and theology calls the theology of romantic love as well as the sub themes of redemptive suffering and grace My interest in the book is not an analysis of cinematography per se but on the films as vehicles for religious ideas What makes this approach unique is that it doesn t deal with only faith and film as Peter Frazer does very well in his book Images of the Passion The Sacramental Mode in Film for example it also goes beyond the realm of strict literary criticism in its tackling of how religiously oriented works of literature are affected by the transformation into film Insight Guides New Zealand: Travel Guide eBook Insight Guides,2024-04-01 This New Zealand

Redeeming the Screens Jeanne C. DeFazio,William David Spencer,2016-05-03 How does the future look to us Well clearly we realize we now live in a world of screens from the microcosmic universe of to smartphone to the imposing vigil of the multiplex giants looming over us in Imax and 3 D more real than real and to all the screens in between from computers to iPads to muted high definition flat screens pouring out images in homes restaurants banks businesses schools doctors offices and hospitals and on and on everywhere we turn We cannot change this reality so what these Christians and so many like them are doing is trying to find ways to redeem what we put on these screens what message we are sending out in word and image to the watching world So clearly our task whether we have been called to create or not is to join these artists as screen redeemers assisting the Holy Spirit in reconciling the world to God 2 Cor 5 18 19 through helping the pervasively influential means of the media adjust its goals to the mission of Jesus Christ

Adaptation as Communication Anne Furlong,2025-02-20 This book offers a consistent theoretically grounded accessible account of adaptation across a range of instances employing Relevance Theory as its explanatory framework and arguing that every adaptation is an independent communicative act The author establishes the principles of the study in the first part introducing and contextualising the theory developed by Sperber and Wilson before going on in the second part to demonstrate the strength of the approach and its relevance and utility within adaptation studies and beyond through a wide array of examples The volume will open up discussion in areas previously underserved by adaptation studies and consider broader implications such as where we draw the line when we think about adaptation This book will be of interest to students and scholars in a range of fields including adaptation studies relevance theory linguistic pragmatics stylistics narratology intertextuality literature and film studies
