The Next Big Thing in School Improvement Ben White, Matthew Evans, Rebecca Allen, 2021-10-22 This is a book about educational fads why they arise and how we might learn to live with them Those working in schools are subject to perpetual waves of novelty in the name of school improvement And yet in the long term very little actually changes Big ideas come and go leaving only faint clues as to their existence The trouble is that the appealing stories that take hold will never solve the fundamental problems of modern schooling The school system is too complex too diverse and too uncertain to be fixed by any Big Idea Before too long the Next Big Thing replaces the Last Big Thing The Next Big Thing in School

Improvement brings together the unique perspectives of a policy analyst a headteacher and a classroom teacher to explain why it is that the school system often resists our attempts to improve it Drawing on the recent history of English education policy a variety of disciplinary traditions and the emerging field of complexity science the authors present a new take on why the school system behaves in ways that defy our attempts to change it This is a book about finding a better way to improve our schools It is not the Next Big Thing but it does explain why there will inevitably be one and what to do when it arrives

Promoting and Delivering School-to-School Support for Special Educational Needs Rita Cheminais, 2013-04-12 Recent changes to education policy have brought about a new emphasis on promoting school to school support and school led improvement in order to ensure that all pupils including those with SEN achieve their optimum potential SENCOs often in the role of Specialist Leaders of Education SLE now undertake coaching mentoring and the delivery of training to ensure that trainee newly qualified and experienced teachers and teaching assistants have the practical skills to effectively meet the needs of pupils with SEN In her trademark down to earth style Rita Cheminais shows SENCOs how to respond to and enhance this exciting and pivotal new role by Explaining the new school to school support and school led improvement context that many SENCOs will be working in Clarifying the role of the outstanding SENCO as a Specialist Leader of Education Maximising on the best practice arising from the effective use of the pupil premium and the Achievement for All initiative Confirming OFSTED s expectations for SEND in the revised inspection schedule for schools and academies Describing how best to monitor evaluate and validate best practice in school to school support Packed with time saving photocopiable resources examples of best practice and further activities for reflection this practical book will enable the SENCO to respond to the current agenda particularly in performing the role of a Specialist Leader of Education disseminating SEN expertise across schools Promoting and Delivering School to School Support for Special Educational Needs will be essential reading for all outstanding and aspiring outstanding SENCOs working in the early years primary secondary and special phases of education academies and Pupil Referral Units
