The films of Ethan and Joel Coen have been embraced by mainstream audiences but also have been subject to intense scrutiny by critics and cinema scholars Movies such as Barton Fink The Hudsucker Proxy and Raising Arizona represent the filmmakers postmodern tendencies a subject many academics have written about at length But is it enough to reduce their features as expressions of postmodernism or are there other ways of viewing their work not only their individual films but their entire output as a collective whole In Constructing the Coens From Blood Simple to Inside Llewyn Davis Allen H Redmon looks beyond the postmodern sensibilities of every film written and directed by the Coens to find an unexpected range of recurring ideas expressed in and about contemporary film In this volume Redmon tackles all of the films in the Coen brothers canon by examining among other topics narrative coherence in The Man Who Wasn't There intertextuality in No Country for Old Men and sexuality in Burn after Reading and O Brother Where Art Thou Additional chapters look at their films through the prisms of gender studies adaptation studies and a constructivist sensibility weaved throughout their work Considering the whole of the Coens output as well as many of the topics being discussed in contemporary film studies this book challenges viewers to reexamine their initial responses to these movies By engaging both the familiar and foreign elements in each film Constructing the Coens will appeal to fans of the brothers cinema but also to students and scholars of film theory adaptation studies queer theory and gender studies The Unfilmable Confederacy of Dunces Stephan Eicke, 2022-12-19

For more than 40 years dozens of film directors writers and producers tried and failed to adapt John Kennedy Toole's Pulitzer Prize winning novel A Confederacy of Dunces. Along the way lawsuits were filed, filming locations destroyed, friendships shattered, reputations trashed, production companies bankrupted. Drawing on exclusive interviews, internal documents and private correspondence, this book tells the remarkable story of the non-making of A Confederacy of Dunces as a breathless and absurdist thriller. Celebrity appearances include John Belushi, Steven Soderbergh, Stephen Fry, Robin Williams, Warren Beatty and Harvey Weinstein among others.

The Philosopher King Heath Carpenter, 2019-06-01 Texas-born T Bone Burnett is an award-winning musician, songwriter and producer with over forty years of experience in the entertainment industry. In The Philosopher King, Heath Carpenter evaluates and positions Burnett as a major cultural catalyst by grounding his work and that of others abiding by a similar roots ethic in the American South. Carpenter examines select artistic productions created by Burnett to understand what they communicate about the South and southern identity. He also extends his analysis to artists, producers and cultural tastemakers who operate by an ethic and aesthetic similar to Burnett's, examining the interests behind the preservationist heritage movement in contemporary roots music and how this community contributes to ongoing conversations regarding modern southern identity. The Philosopher King explores these artistic connections, the culture in which they reside and most specifically the role T Bone Burnett plays in a contemporary cultural movement that seeks to represent a traditional American music ethos in distinctly Southern terms. Carpenter looks at films, songs, soundtracks, studio albums, fashion and performances, each loaded with symbols, archetypes and themes that illuminate the intersection between past and present issues of identity. By weaving together ethnographic interviews with cultural analysis, Carpenter investigates how relevant social issues are being negotiated, how complicated discussions of history, tradition and heritage feed the ethic and how the American South as a perceived distinct region factors into the equation.

Contemporary Musical Film K. J. Donnelly, 2017-06-26 Since the turn of the millennium, films such as Chicago (2002) and Phantom of the Opera (2004) have reinvigorated the popularity of the screen musical. This edited collection brings together a number of international scholars looking closely at the range and scope of contemporary film musicals, from stage adaptations like Mamma Mia (2008) and Les Misérables (2012) to less conventional works that elide the genre like Team America: World Police (2004) and Quentin Tarantino's Kill Bill (2003-04). Looking at the varying aesthetic function of soundtrack and lyric in films like Disney's wildly popular Frozen (2013) and the Fast and the Furious franchise, or the self-reflexive commentary of the post-millennial rock musical, this wide-ranging collection breaks new ground in its study of this multifaceted genre.

The Coen Brothers Ian Nathan, 2017-11-02 Through in-depth and informative text written by film journalist Ian Nathan, The Coen Brothers Archive re-examines the brothers' most famous work. Plus some of their cult films like The Evil Dead, Paris je t'aime and A Serious Man. Packed with stunning images from the Kobal archives, this book will also highlight their surprising involvement in recent films like Bridge of Spies and Unbroken, as well as looking at those

Fate in Film Thomas M. Puhr, 2022-10-18 The course of events is predetermined and cannot be changed Forces beyond our control or even our comprehension shape our fates Such is the deterministic worldview embedded in a wide swath of contemporary cinema from arthouse experiments to popular genre films through both thematic concerns and narrative structures These films especially the recent spate of elevated science fiction and horror tap into this deep seated anxiety by focusing on characters who ultimately fail to transcend the patterns and structures that define them Thomas M Puhr identifies and analyzes the ways that cinema has dealt with the tension between fate and free will from Stanley Kubrick s The Shining to Christopher Nolan s Tenet He examines films that express deterministic ideas including circular narratives of stasis or confinement and fatalistic portraits of external forces dictating characters lives Puhr considers determinism at the levels of the individual the family and society reading films in which characters are trapped by past or alternate selves the burdens of family histories or oppressive social structures He explores how films such as Joel and Ethan Coen s Inside Llewyn Davis Ari Aster s Hereditary Jordan Peele s Us and Lucrecia Martel s Zama confront the limits of human agency Puhr relates deterministic themes to the nature of moviegoing In denying characters any ability to choose alternative paths these films mirror how viewers themselves can only sit and watch Recasting the works of some of today s most compelling directors Fate in Film is an innovative critical account of an unrecognized yet crucial aspect of contemporary cinema

The Coen Brothers and the Comedy of Democracy Sara MacDonald, Barry Craig, 2018-12-31 Both critically and commercially successful filmmakers the Coen brothers have written produced and directed numerous acclaimed films over the past three decades Sara MacDonald and Barry Craig demonstrate that their comedies in particular which are often dismissed as mere entertainments actually present substantial philosophic and political arguments They examine five of the Coen brothers comedies Raising Arizona Fargo The Big Lebowski O Brother Where Art Thou and Hail Caesar In those works they discover insightful engagements with such ideas as questions of human freedom the relationship of reason to religion and the nature of liberal democracy in the American regime They demonstrate how sometimes explicitly but generally implicitly the Coens draw on thinkers such as Homer Plato Dante and Hegel while simultaneously presenting popular entertainment
