You are going to write a persuasive essay. In a persuasive essay you attempt to get the reader to agree with your point of view. You will write at least 275 words in Spanish. This paper must be handwritten.

You must cite your sources throughout your research paper and also at the end of it. You must include at least three written sources, such as online articles, and/or articles found in our textbook, Lección. Use sources that are reputable, that have a good reputation, and that are first editions.

You must include a word count at the end of your research paper.

Spelling is important! If you don't know how to spell a word, then please look it up in a dictionary. You must include accents.

How you will be graded - See the rubric included in this packet.

1. Your Spanish writing ability (grammar, spelling, and accents)
 2. The content of your essay
 3. Following directions - doing everything that I asked you to do.
- (I will also be giving you credit along the way for doing parts of the paper - for example, for writing the rough draft.)

Do your own work. Obviously you may not copy anything from a book or from the Internet, unless you cite it. Also, no one may help you with this paper unless it is me, Mr. Coleman. No native speakers, tutors, nor parents may give you any help. I want to know what you know. I want to see your work. I want to hear your voice when I read your paper.
