Sacrament of First Holy Communion Prayers of the Faithful

Today, we will receive a very special gift from Jesus when we share His body for the first time. Let us say thank you for being so lucky.

As we celebrate our First Holy Communion, we thank Jesus for the people who love us – our families and friends. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

As we receive the body of Jesus, may we remember what He told us to do – love one another as I have love you. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for Father _____ who is here with us at our First Holy Communion. May Jesus help him as he continues his work. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for children around the world who are not as lucky as we are. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for people around the world who do not have enough to eat and are hungry. May we remember them in our prayers. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

We thank God for our parents and teachers who teach us about Jesus. May God keep them safe. Lord hear us.

Lord graciously hear us.

Kilmartin, 2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin s death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important
