Petoria Metro Police Posts:

Crime and Policing in Post-Apartheid South Africa Mark Shaw,2002-06-13 A cogent and well informed discussion of the South African Police Service and the organisational problems it faces Stephen Ellis Since the mid 1990s South Africa has experienced a crime wave of such unprecedented proportions that the ability of the new democracy to form a stable civil society and govern effectively has been called into question In this timely book Mark Shaw describes how a police force that was so effective under apartheid became so ineffectual in the face of rising crime He shows how an increase in violent crime shapes society police and government and discusses possible solutions for the current crisis International crimes such as war terrorism and organized crime are explored along with crimes that affect individual security such as armed robbery murder and rape Crime and Policing in Post Apartheid South Africa draws attention to both the national and the international dimensions of crime in this society in transition
