underwater cavern off the coast west of Marseille are the first human engravings known to man Among them is a crude drawing of a three fingered hand which has long puzzled archaeologists Is it a hunting signal A mystic sign invoking the spirits Or is it as many believe evidence of ritual mutilation in a Shamanistic world The Hunter evidently believes the latter Driven by inhuman voices to maim and kill he severs the body parts of his victims and signs his savagery with a print of a three fingered hand Commandant Michel de Palma of the Marseille murder squad heads to the university in Aix en Provence to investigate further but the clique of pre history professors he encounters are as hard to unravel as the meaning of the cave drawing itself As he gets closer to the truth the group of academics close ranks Slowly and alone de Palma begins pursuing a mystery that dates back to the Ice age The First Fingerprint introduces a policeman as polished as he is brutal as charming as he is deceptive Michel de Palma called the Baron by his colleagues knows the dark underside of the city of Marseille as do none of his rivals But his enemies are everywhere in the crime infested sinks of the suburbs in the sleek and squalid bars of the old quarter even in the police ranks themselves Summertime, All the Cats Are Bored Philippe Georget,2013-07-02
