Jain, Himansu Sekhar Behera, Jyotsna Kumar Mandal, Durga Prasad Mohapatra, 2014-12-11 The contributed volume aims to explicate and address the difficulties and challenges for the seamless integration of two core disciplines of computer science i.e computational intelligence and data mining Data Mining aims at the automatic discovery of underlying non trivial knowledge from datasets by applying intelligent analysis techniques The interest in this research area has experienced a considerable growth in the last years due to two key factors a knowledge hidden in organizations databases can be exploited to improve strategic and managerial decision making b the large volume of data managed by organizations makes it impossible to carry out a manual analysis The book addresses different methods and techniques of integration for enhancing the overall goal of data mining The book helps to disseminate the knowledge about some innovative active research directions in the field of data mining machine and computational intelligence along with some current issues and applications of related topics In the Event of Women Tani Barlow, 2021-09-20 In the Event of Women outlines the stakes of what Tani Barlow calls the event of women Focusing on the era of the late nineteenth century through the mid twentieth century s Cultural Revolution Barlow shows that an event is a politically inspired action to install a newly discovered truth in this case the mammal origins of human social evolution Highbrow and lowbrow social theory circulating in Chinese urban print media placed humanity s origin story in relation to commercial capital s modern advertising industry and the conclusion that women s liberation involved selling buying and advertising industrial commodities The political struggle over how the truth of women in China would be performed and understood Barlow shows means in part that an event of women was likely global because its truth is vested in biology and physiology In so doing she reveals the ways in which historical universals are effected in places where truth claims are not usually sought This book reconsiders Alain Badiou s concept of the event particularly the question of whose political moment marks newly discovered truths History of Nordic Computing 2 John Impagliazzo, Timo Järvi, Petri Paju, 2009-09-21 The First Conference on the History of Nordic Computing HiNC1 was organized in Trondheim in June 2003 The HiNC1 event focused on the early years of computing that is the years from the 1940s through the 1960s although it formally extended to year 1985 In the preface of the proceedings of HiNC1 Janis Bubenko Jr John Impagliazzo and Arne S lvsberg describe well the peculiarities of early Nordic computing 1 While developing hardware was a necessity for the first professionals quite soon the computer became an industrial product Computer scientists among others grew increasingly interested in programming and application software Progress in these areas from the 1960s to the 1980s was experienced as astonishing. The developments during these decades were taken as the focus of HiNC2. During those decades computers arrived to every branch of large and medium sized businesses and the users of the computer systems were no longer only computer specialists but also people with other main duties. Compared to the early years of computing before 1960 where the number of computer projects and applications was small, capturing a holistic view of the history between the 1960s and the 1980s is considerably more difficult. The HiNC2 conference attempted to help in this endeavor.

Encouraging Learning James Nottingham, 2013-05-29 I recommend this book to anyone wishing to help children learn. In it you will find some lovely ideas for improving the way we encourage, support and praise all young people. Professor Carol Dweck, author of Mindset, Stanford University, USA, has developed a rare skill for blending arresting anecdotes, hard-edged research and practical advice into a truly compelling narrative. Professor Barry Hymer, author of The Gifted and Talented Pocket Book, Cumbria University, UK, over the last 20 years James Nottingham has studied how children learn. He has taught every age group in both primary and secondary schools, helped deaf teenagers deal with anger and isolation and even done philosophy with three year olds. In this inspiring, humorous and practical book he shows what you can do to help children of all ages develop into confident, thoughtful and independent learners. Based around the acronym ASK, this book explores attitudes, skills and knowledge to learning, what is required and how to develop these skills more effectively. It shows how to encourage independent thinking and a spirit of inquiry in your children. Highlights include the dangers of calling our children clever, bright and gifted, the best ways to teach wisdom, how to help children excel in exams, why curiosity did not kill the cat. With a foreword written by John Hattie, Encouraging Learning draws on research from some of the most respected experts on thinking and learning to identify the best ways to help children learn more effectively, efficiently and cooperatively. For everyone living or working with children, particularly teachers, parents, carers and youth workers, this book shows you some of the best ways to enhance children's learning, including how to question, praise and encourage more effectively.

Challenging Learning James Nottingham, 2015-10-22 Challenging Learning offers advice and techniques for helping children of all ages develop into confident, thoughtful and independent learners. Based around the acronym ASK (Attitudes, Skills and Knowledge), this essential guide explores attitudes, skills and knowledge to learning. It considers the strategies that can help teachers to challenge their pupils to think more skilfully and logically and how to develop these techniques more effectively. Drawing on the latest research from some of the most respected experts in the field, Challenging Learning encourages independent thinking and a spirit of inquiry in pupils of all ages. Through the use of rich examples of classroom interactions, this book offers strategies that will help pupils to produce their own thoughtful conclusions, develop their own concepts, examine logic and remain open to alternatives. Highlights include effective teaching strategies including FACTS, the Teaching Target Model and the Learning Pit Models, up to date research and theory from leading experts, practical suggestions and principles to help you design and develop your own lessons. For everyone living or working with children particularly teachers parents carers and youth workers this book shows some of the best ways to enhance children s learning including how to question praise give feedback and encourage more effectively
