Morrison, 2015-12-08 Beginning with the conversion of Constantine in 312 and the establishment of the Christian Empire the book continues through the Middle Ages up to the publication of Gratian's Decretum the great systematic book of Church law which transformed the idea of tradition into legal concepts Throughout this period the hierarchy was called upon to deal with such fundamental questions as the nature of tradition and the extent of its authority the infallibility of the pope and the proper role of the laity in defining dogma Originally published in 1969 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Agitation with a Smile Stephen Bird, Adam Silver, Joshua C. Yesnowitz, 2015-11-17 Agitation with a Smile offers a reappraisal of Howard Zinn's political thought and situates his efforts in a contemporary context looking toward the nature of activism and dissent in the future This is the first book to provide a substantive account and assessment of Zinn's philosophy and approach to collective action and to a larger extent democracy The contributors to this book explore the most effective mechanisms by which to arouse public support for seemingly radical positions and how current technological advancements may alter our perception of Zinn's activism The book is a valuable guide to a new generation of activists and scholars of politics in gauging the lasting relevance and legacy of Zinn's ideals concepts and methodology The text is neither fawning nor unduly critical unlike many discussions of Zinn in popular culture Rather the contributors engage the various complexities and tensions present throughout Zinn's work and subject them to contemporary assessment This is a multidisciplinary and international approach to Howard Zinn's intellectual and activist canon The Oxford Handbook of the Australian Constitution Cheryl Saunders, Adrienne Stone, 2018 Providing an interdisciplinary overview of Australian constitutional law and practice this Handbook situates the development of the constitutional system in its proper context It also examines recurrent themes and tensions in Australian constitutional law and points the way for future developments Seven Letters to "The Guardian," on the Report of Part of the Proceedings of the Synod of St. Andrews, &c., Published in that Paper, July 3, 1850 Charles claiming that they appear only when no scientists are present Pg 31 32 Pinnock observes If we say as Vatican II does that inspiration guarantees only those truths necessary for salvation the question arises how much we need to know to be saved The way is open for someone to come along with the opinion that he need know very little Very little then is inerrantly taught in Scripture Pg 150 Sproul says in an essay Jesus understanding of the Old Testament Scriptures casts a shadow over his own sinlessness Jesus does not have to be omniscient to be infallible But he must be infallible to be sinless That is to say if Jesus claiming to be sent from God and invoking the authority of God in his teaching errs in that teaching he is guilty of sin The one who claims to be the truth cannot err and be consistent with that claim Anyone claiming absolute authority in his teaching must be absolutely trustworthy in what he teaches in order to merit absolute authority In light of his claims Jesus cannot plead invincible ignorance as an excuse for error Pg 253 These essays will be of great interest to any Christians studying the doctrine of biblical inerrancy by Steven H Propp Top 100 Reviewer
