Parliament. House of Commons. Environmental Audit Committee,2008 This is the thirteenth report from the Environmental Audit Committee of the 2007 08 session HCP 743 ISBN 9780215524843 The Committee states that the Government will fail to meet the 2010 target to halt biodiversity loss although the target might have been unrealistic The Committee does see some progress with 80% of Sites of Special Scientific Interest SSIs in a favourable condition with a number of rare species having recovered In general though biodiversity loss continues in the wider countryside with many species and habitats facing severe declines and local extinctions The Committee does believe though that with leadership and effective policies biodiversity loss could in fact be reversed and states the Government should adopt a new target to halt the loss Biodiversity policies need to be cross departmental and the Government's ecosystem assessment is a way forward by encouraging such an approach and promoting biodiversity protection at the regional and local scales The Committee further states that the Government could make a large contribution in preventing biodiversity loss through more support for the UK Overseas Territories Army ,1980 The Mother of All Hooks William H. McMichael,2024-11-01 The Mother of All Hooks is a richly detailed description of the United States government's attempts to punish naval officers for sexual misconduct committed at the 1991 Tailhook Association convention in Las Vegas Nevada Journalist William H McMichael describes the institutionalized mind set that led to that misconduct and in the face of an oppressive politically charged investigation to a large scale failure to cooperate with government agents This failure led to further investigative and prosecutorial excesses that ultimately doomed the effort to bring the guilty to justice many of the guiltiest hi fact were given immunity to testify and escaped severe punishment At the same time McMichael makes clear that Tailhook misconduct had been largely condoned for decades but that senior officials failed to take responsibility for allowing such an atmosphere to flourish This powerful expose is a shocking eye opening read for psychologists criminologists criminal justice professionals and members of the U S military

The Tailhook Association convention had become infamous in naval circles for heavy drinking hard partying and sexual promiscuity The most notable such activity was the gauntlet a hallway lined by men through which selected women were forced to pass only to be fondled McMichael provides a rich narrative account of how the United States Navy and the Pentagon mishandled investigation of events at the 1991 convention and subsequent hearings In addition to exposing that approach s dramatic shortcomings McMichael also provides insight into the Navy s history of open sexuality by its members while overseas the fighter pilot psyche and the larger issue of whether the Navy should be permitted to investigate its own transgressions While more than thirty admirals eventually received what amounted to a hand slap more than twenty junior officers received career killing punitive letters of reprimand in closed door administrative hearings The Mother of All Hooks provides absorbing new details for all who think they know what happened because of Tailhook and why
