Oh Deer Here Come The Wolves:

Take 5! for Science Kaye Hagler, Judy Elgin Jensen, 2015 Take Five for Science transforms those first five minutes of class into engaging writing opportunities. Students will brainstorm their way through 75 topics within three main science divisions: earth, life, and physical science. All prompts are aligned with NGSS and ELA CCSS as students debate, compare, investigate, question, and design in response to 150 prompts. Whether your students are working to save endangered ecosystems, investigating distant constellations, creating unusual animals, or constructing a design solution, these diverse and creative prompts will have students looking forward to each day when they're asked to Take Five for Science. Begin every day of the school year with a burst of writing in the science discipline with this comprehensive and fun resource. Ready, Set, Take Five!

Mumerkamba W. E. Lee, 2010-03 Jake Casper is a young man with the world at his fingertips. That is until his 24th birthday. When his buddy Peter decides to take him on a hiking trip that forever will change his life. Follow along with him as he takes you on one crazy adventure that you will remember for many years. From the snowing mountains in present-day Washington state to a far away ancient island filled with beauty and danger at every turn. He learns that love, honor, and faith is the true meaning of life. Mumerkamba is a book written in first person and many hours of factual research was done to give the reader great details in this fast-moving story.
