- a. A ski resort
- b. A secluded, tropical island
- c. An ancient city with old ruins and architecture.

*Write some effective rhetorical questions that could entice audiences to visit each of these places.

On the powerpoint information slides, you can click the task buttons to open up the task card instructions.

A printable PDF file with all of the 12 task cards has been included. →

AUDIENCE TYPES

You have just come across a flyer that has advertised a community Easter Egg Hunt. The event has a $5 entry fee and will be held at the local park on the last Thursday before Easter.

What specific types of audience would the creators of this flyer have had in mind? Write down your answers and provide evidence for your responses.

EMOTIVE LANGUAGE

You've been hired to sell tickets for a charity event that will raise money for your local hospital. Write a 1 paragraph sales pitch that includes at least 5 emotive words to convince your target audiences to buy your tickets.

COMPARE AND CONTRAST:

1. Create a table, and use it to compare and contrast the positive and negative effects that technology has on human beings.
2. Once you have completed your table, refer to your listed information and make your own statement about technology and it's impact on human beings.

FACTUAL INFORMATION

Choose one of the topics below to focus on, and argue who/which is the most superior in comparison to others. Your written argument must be supported with factual information.

- The best sporting team or sportsperson (based on their winning records, achievements etc.)
- The best musical performer (based on their following, record sales, chart statistics, career longevity etc.)
- The best movie (based on box office ticket sales, critical reviews, awards etc.)
