USPS E-473 Study Guide

The E-473 test is infamous for its difficulty. It has remained a challenge from the time it was developed as 473 in Paper & Pencil format, through its current computerized version. Although each question by itself is quite doable and requires no prior USPS knowledge, many items under harsh time limits make this test impossible to score perfectly¹. The goal is to maximize the score you will receive, potentially opening the door to the job.

It is important to remember that some of the tips we will teach you might seem trivial and obvious to you now, but when bombarded with questions and pressured with limited time, these tips accumulate and become a major factor.

Let us begin exploring the different parts of the test, from the easiest to the most difficult.
