Academic Quality and Integrity in the New Higher Education Digital Environment Upasana Gitanjali Singh,Chenicheri Sid Nair,Rashmi Watson,2023-06-13

Academic Quality and Integrity in the New Higher Education Digital Environment A Global Perspective provides discussions on the work of three editors who have significant experience in the quality assurance of teaching and learning and have been developing approaches during the recent COVID 19 pandemic Discussions on learning and teaching during the pandemic were concentrated on how academic institutions ensure quality of courses and that academic integrity is maintained in all assessments in a digital environment thus ensuring what is being delivered meets global standards and professional bodies have confidence in programs delivered by the higher education sector The area of quality assurance and academic integrity is thus critical in this new digital environment where significant educational programs will be delivered Provides updates on what university administrators are doing to face challenges on how to maintain the quality of their programs during digital learning Addresses concerns on the quality of their programs and academic integrity is maintained at all times Proposes new practices and innovative approaches to bring to the attention of stakeholders in a central depository so that there can be informed approaches in institutions and in the set up of regulatory practices

Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman,Ronelle Carolissen,2018-12-21 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus By engaging with students as knowledge producers we transform popular ways of thinking about race gender class sexuality disability and age as singular and natural markers of difference and diversity Rather than taking diversity as fixed and rooted in nature we explore how diversity is imagined and lived in particular contexts on and off campus

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker,Monica McLean,2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capabilitarian scholars practitioners and policy makers Finding a moral compass for South Africa JM Vorster,2023-07-31

The research question of this book reads Can South Africans amidst all the contemporary distrust in political leadership and moral decay find a moral compass that could lead them to a humane society of mutual trust respect for each other a flourishing life and a bright future for future generations This book presents new perspectives on the psychopathology created by colonisation the failures of the post 1994 dispensation regarding reconciliation transformation justice distorted family life violence unity in diversity as well as moral leadership and agency and indifference to a future of hope It proposes a new moral compass that can lead South Africa out of the abyss Shaping the World of Change ,2024-06-03 This book sets out the theme of a world that is changing rapidly and higher education being an important agent in shaping that change through knowledge generation transfer and innovation The chapters in this book focus on this shaping role of higher education along a number of key areas governance sustainability teaching and learning student agency quality and internationalization From these different topics this volume presents ways in which higher education helps dealing with and shaping the educational and societal changes that we are facing in the aftermath of the pandemic and challenges that we are expecting in the near future Contributors are Victor M H Borden Bruno Broucker Edel Cassar B rbara Coelho Gabriel Cindy Cogswell Julia Draghi Brigitte Ecker P nar Eldemir Klaus Feldmann Cl udia Figueiredo Anne Gannon Jussi Kivist Manja Klemen i Theodor Leiber Nandarani Maistry Sara Moreno Pires Takalani Muloiwa Klenam Darlington Mutakwa Erna Nairz Wirth Ruaidhri Neavyn Jessica Nooij Mark O Hara Beate Pawle Alexandra Polido Maria P schl Silke Preymann Verena R gent Lotte Scheeren Kateryna Suprun Robertt Valente Floris J N van Berckel Smit Annemieke van der Horst and Sabine Weiss

Transforming Universities in South Africa, 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage

Sustainable Management Development in Africa Hamid Kazeroony, 2016-04-14 Sustainable Management Development in Africa examines how African management and business scholarship can serve African and multinational management and organizations operating in Africa In a broader sense this book within an African context explores how human capital and intellectual capabilities can be organized at the higher education level describes the cultural social and political influencers impacting management and organization helps conceptualize African management theories to address organizational effectiveness addresses the current management and organizational practices in Africa in identifying challenges and provides guidance for more effective management and organizational operation Aimed at researchers academics and advanced students alike this book lays the groundwork for the application of uniquely African theoretical and practical perspectives for sustainable management and organizational operation as explained from a contemporary African point of view In addition and most important this book contains a uniquely African content that allows for developing new theories and examining new ways of doing business thus reaffirming the rise of African scholarship in the fields of management organization and business

Business Research Pieter W. Buys, Merwe Oberholzer, 2023-03-14 This book focuses on research methodologies that apply to business research particularly for researchers and managers embarking thereon to support managerial decision making in the industry In doing so the book s objective is to guide business researchers in identifying defining and applying rigorous academic methodologies that will enable them to formulate design and execute effective research that answers their specific management problems Such guidance can empower organizational managers to understand that business research can contribute to practical solutions to actual problems experienced in the industry In addition by emphasizing the integrative nature between 1 academic research and 2 experienced industry problems it becomes possible to foster an awareness of such research s potential impact on organizational performance management sustainability and resilience With that attention is given to narrowing the gap between theory and practice which requires that fundamentals of scientific research be adhered to while maintaining the delicate balance between a practice friendly guide to pragmatically sound and academically rigorous business research

Youth In South Africa Ariane De Lannoy, Malose Langa, 2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation's development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest unemployment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of wait-hood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio-economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current approaches

Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Mariam Akinlolu, Manyane

Makua, Nomalungelo Ngubane, 2024-06-03 This edited volume explores current practices in African higher education during and post the global pandemic It fills a gap in the existing literature by focusing on student engagement and online learning in South Africa and examines how pandemic restrictions amplified pre-existing inequalities within the higher education sector The book is divided into 3 sections The first section discusses various methods of instruction and the use of online tools for facilitating learning succeeded by a section focusing on the resource implications of moving to online learning platforms from a social justice perspective and finally the last section considers issues and concerns about online assessments and quality assurance Drawing on lessons from the experiences of South African educators and students during the pandemic this book provides a knowledge base essential for the effective management of online teaching and learning in Africa It is intended for academic stakeholders to develop and engender an improved higher education climate

Women, Economic Development, and Higher Education Diane E.

Eynon, 2017-06-19 This book is a multi-disciplinary exploration of the intersection relationship and connection between higher education economic development and gender in post-Apartheid South Africa In just twenty years South Africa has rewritten its constitution restructured its macroeconomic growth and development policies restructured its higher education system and made a commitment to provide opportunity for all its citizens specifically those who have historically been marginalized women and blacks Eynon weaves together these unique perspectives to illustrate how these multiple domains

map onto women and the critical role they play in the present and future of the country Gender equality and women s empowerment and education were considered key drivers to South Africa s transformation

Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo,2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings

Access to Higher Education Graeme Atherton,2017-09-16 This book is the first systematic attempt to examine one of the biggest challenges facing universities and society in the 21st century how do we create opportunities to allow people from all social backgrounds to benefit from higher education It examines how policymakers higher education institutions and civil society organisations are meeting this challenge across the globe Each chapter focuses on one of 12 countries including the economically powerful US and Germany developing nations from Africa and South America and the new higher education superpowers of China and India Access to Higher Education shows that across these different nations inequalities in higher education participation are common but their nature differs It argues for a new nationhood based approach to understanding why these differences exist
